Demands Return Of U.S. Soldiers Held By Czechs

Reds Claim Captain, Six Enlisted Men Were On Spy Mission

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States has served Red Czechoslovakia with a brusque demand for the "immediate return" of seven U.S. soldiers who this government charged were kidnaped last Sunday.

The State Department disclosed last night that an exceptionally stiff note was delivered to the Czech Foreign Office in Prague yesterday.

Calls Claims Unfounded

That note dismissed as unfounded Czech claims that the seven — a captain and six enlisted men — were spying when they were seized by a Czech border patrol near the West German town of Baernau July 4.

But a few hours after the U. S. note was handed to Czech diplomatic officials, the Communist satellite government repeated its espionage charge in a Prague radio broadcast heard in Vienna.

The U.S. note, protesting "in the strongest terms this abduction of American soldiers," said the Americans "were proceeding innocently without arms along the (Czech-German) border . . . when they were seized by a Czech patrol."

Withholds Identification

The Army withheld public identification of the soldiers pending notification of next of kin but the Czechoslovak news agency Ceteka, contacted by telephone in Prague today from Vienna, named them as Capt. Jack Davis, Pvt. Richard Jumper, Pfc. Leonard Tennis, Cpl. John Glasson, Pvt. Ross McGinnis, Pfc. George Switzer and Pfc. Jerry Griffith. Ceteka could give no home addresses.

Army spokesmen in Germany have said the soldiers were on leave and may have crossed the Czech border by mistake while sightseeing.

Cites Espionage Charge

However the Czech reply note to the United States as read over the Prague radio insisted that "their confession and behavior confirm the group entered Czech territory to conduct an espionage mission."

The Czech note said further the soldiers confessed that they entered Czech territory by illegal means and that films found on them revealed that they had photographed objects on Czechoslovak soil.

The Prague broadcast said the Americans were arrested after trying to elude the border guards.

Ike Wards Off Action On UN

Chances Of Senate Move Appear Dim

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower appeared today to have warded off an early Senate action to put Congress on record with formal notice of American withdrawal if the United Nations admits Red China.

Sen. George of Georgia, senior Democrat on the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said in an interview he does not now expect such a proposal to be offered. If one is, he said, he will oppose it because any such move "might deprive us of freedom of action at a critical time."

He said he "fully agrees" with Sen. Knowland of California, the GOP floor leader, that this country must do everything possible to keep the Chinese Communists out of the U.N. But he said he doesn't want the United States cast in advance in the role of "being willing to preside at the liquidation of the United Nations."

Knowland himself has been cooling on his proposal to give advance notice of American withdrawal. George's opposition indicated the Republican leader would lack the necessary Democratic votes to get it approved in a closely divided Senate.

Sen. H. Alexander Smith (R-NJ), acting chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee, said he agrees the proposal won't be offered.

Eisenhower told a White House news conference yesterday he is "completely and unalterably opposed under the present situation to the admission of Red China into the United Nations." The White House gave added emphasis to his remarks by authorizing direct quotation, ordinarily not permitted.

Eisenhower added, however, that if American opposition should be overridden "the question of whether we would accomplish more good in the world, whether we could advance the cause of peace and decency better by going out than staying in—that is something that would have to be decided."

He said he doubted that any plan for automatic U.S. withdrawal was being seriously considered in Congress.

Knowland interpreted this as a sign that the President wants no advance commitment. He indicated he will bow to Eisenhower's judgment. But he predicted that if the Peiping government is seated, Congress would act swiftly to take the United States out of the U.N.

Motorist Cited After Car Hits Two Trees

A 26-year-old Salem motorist was cited for driving while intoxicated early this morning after his car struck two trees on Summit St. at 3:30.

Police said the driver, Emmor Fred Snyder of 443 S. Lincoln Ave., failed to make a turn, struck a tree at 919 Summit St. and bounced off the first tree into a second.

Smashed in was the car's right front fender, grill, bumper, left front fender and left side, police stated. Snyder will have a hearing in mayor's court this afternoon on the charge.

Salem's Financial Picture Improved, Survey Points Out

D. H. Sutton, research director of the Ohio Public Expenditure Council, Wednesday noon submitted a financial report of the City of Salem to members of the Manufacturers Association in which he declared that Salem's financial condition has exhibited marked improvement during the past four-year period.

"There are, however," he pointed out, "a number of prevailing practices and procedures which merit the careful consideration of city officials and all taxpaying citizens interested in the maintenance of municipal services."

Based upon the data collected in Salem until April, 1954, the survey staff of the council reached nine conclusions, Sutton said. "It is the opinion of the survey staff that:

"1. Salem has already begun to realize the tax benefits from property benefits accruing from property reappraisal. No substantial increase may be anticipated from increased property values as a source of revenue except through the addition of new construction to the tax duplicate. The total tax duplicate of the city increased 42.1 per cent between 1950 and 1954.

"2. City officials should discontinue the practice of crediting property tax revenues and special assessments to the general fund which have been levied for police pension, firemen's pension and special assessment debt retirement funds. The present accounting practice creates an erroneous impression of city general fund income."

Poor Accounting Practice

Commenting futher on this conclusion, Sutton declared approximately $75,000 in monies had been credited to the general fund and then transferred to other funds. 'This gives the public the impression that the general fund has had $75,000 more than it actually has," he explained.

While this is not a bad financial practice, he noted — all money is accounted for — it is a bad accounting practice.

"3. Unvoted general obligation bonds should not be issued except to meet emergency situations. This practice has been followed in the past by City officials to the extent that 7.1 per cent of the total millage guaranteed to the city exclusive of the mandatory levies for police and firemens pension fund purposes, is imposed to meet the principal and interest requirements on unvoted bonds"

These bonds, Sutton said, were largely those issued for the erection of the new City Hall.

"4 Additional revenues cannot be anticiated by the city from the local government fund distributions except as the total allocated by the state to Columbiana County may be increased On the basis of the procedure followed by county officials in distributing the local government fund Salem had received its proportionate share throughout the period covered by this report.

"5 Even though the ordinance which established the parking meter fund provided that the parking meter collections be credited to the city general fund after the purchase price of meters had been paid as late as April 1, 1954, a

Insist Sheppard Permit Quizzing

Officials Angered By Continued Silence

CLEVELAND (AP)—Angry county officials threatened today to call a public inquest unless they are allowed to question Dr. Samuel H. Sheppard about the slaying of his attractive, 31-year-old wife.

Coroner Samuel R Gerber issued 15 subpenas in blank for an inquest and said they would be served if further delay is encountered in quizzing the injured osteopathic neuro-surgeon.

At the same time, county detective Carl Rossbach, who is assisting Dr. Gerber, said:

"I do not want to take advantage of a man confined to a bed, but it has been five days now since this crime was committed and we still haven't been able to talk with Dr. Sheppard except for brief questioning shortly after the murder."

The 30-year-old physician has been confined to a suburban hospital, operated by his father, since his wife, Marilyn, was found hacked to death in her bed Sunday.

In his brief talk with investigating officers, he gave only a vague account of the murder. He said his injuries were suffered in battling with his wife's assailant.

Assistant County Prosecutor John J. Mahon said the probe has "bogged down" because of "stalling by the Sheppard family."

We're not going to stand for it any longer,' the official added.

Both Rossbach and the coroner pointed out that although they were unable to talk with Dr. Sheppard, he attended his wife's funeral yesterday and later had a string of visitors at the hospital. These included reporters and photographers, Otto Graham, professional football star for the Cleveland Browns, and two attorneys assisting the Sheppard family.

Dr. Sheppard was wheeled into the white marble-walled chapel at Knollwood Mausoleum yesterday to sit before his wife's bronze casket.

Puerto Rican Terrorists Get Prison Terms

WASHINGTON (AP)—Four Puerto Rican terrorists who shot up the House of Representatives March 1 and wounded five of its members today were given maximum prison sentences ranging up to 75 years.

A fiery brunette, Lolita Lebron, 34, self-styled leader of the group, received a sentence of from 16 years, 8 months, to 50 years.

Her three male companions received sentences of from 25 to 75 years each.

U.S. District Judge Alexander Holtzoff said he felt maximum sentences were justified because the crime was "so heinous, so infamous, so daring and so atrocious as to shock the conscience of the nation."

The longer sentences for the three men resulted from the fact that a jury convicted them last month on five charges each of assault with intent to kill and five charges each of assault with a dangerous weapon.

Mrs. Lebron was convicted only on five charges of asault with a dangerous weapon.

Before hearing their sentences, the four Puerto Ricans protested anew that they merely staged a demonstration in behalf of Puerto Rican independence, and did not intend to kill anyone.

In their own minds, the Puerto Ricans said, they did not feel they were guilty of any crime.

Judge Holtzoff took a different view. He called the pistol attack on the House "dastardly, wicked and ruthless." Except for the skillful work of surgeons, the judge said, the Puerto Ricans would have been before him to hear death sentences, instead of sentences on lesser charges.

Minerva Girl Killed In Rt. 30 Accident

JET PLANE CRASHES INTO HOUSE—A wheel and part of the fuselage left (forground) of an F-84 Air Force jet plane, lies in the yard of a house which the craft struck in a residential area on the northwest edge of the business district of Kansas City, Kan. The plane, just off the assembly line and flown by an Air Force pilot, crashed into one house, bounced across the street and set fire to three other homes. Several persons including the pilot, were killed. The plane, built at the General Motors plant in Kansas City, was being delivered to an undisclosed Air Force base.

Crushed When Car Upsets In Old Canal Bed

Pauline Murphy, 22, Is Victim; Driver Has Broken Shoulder

A 22-year-old Minerva woman was killed at 3:50 this morning when thrown from a car which overturned on Route 30, near Bayard.

Pronounced dead on arrival at Alliance City Hospital was Pauline M. Murphy of 401 N. Main St., Minerva. Injuries which caused her death were not immediately determined.

In the Alliance hospital today is Ray W. Becker, 24, of RD 3, Minerva, driver of the car, who suffered a fractured left arm and shoulder.

State Highway Patrolmen said Becker's auto, a convertible, failed to negotiate a curve east of minerva and went off the left side of the road into the swampy bed of the old Sandy Beaver Canal.

Overturning, the car threw Miss Murphy out and crushed her underneath. She was pinned under the vehicle when state patrolmen arrived at the scene.

Becker, trapped in the car, was forced to cut through the top to get out. The canal had about an inch of water in it, patrolmen stated.

Funeral on Saturday

Miss Murphy, daughter of Charles Murphy, was employed at the Isaly Store in Minerva. She had lived in Minerva 11 years and was a member of the Methodist Church.

Also surviving are a sister, Mrs. Clifford Kellogg of Minerva, a sister, Mrs. Gilbert Dearth of Carrollton and a brother, Keith of Minerva.

Services will be held at the Rutledge - Jackson funeral home in Minerva Saturday at 2 p.m. Burial will be in Chestnut Grove Cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home Friday evening.

Car Hits Guard Rail

In other highway mishaps, Charles Noel, 25, of North Lawrence escaped injury after he smashed into a guard rail on Route 9, a mile north of Hanoverton, at 11:30 a.m. Wednesday.

State patrolmen said Noel's auto took out eight posts and about 100 feet of guard rail when he failed to make a curve. The left side of the car was badly damaged, they said.

Noel was cited for driving left of center.

Cars driven by Clarence Trotter, 46, of RD 1, Lisbon, and Jack D. Riddle, 19, of RD 5, Lisbon, collided on Route 30, at the west edge of Lisbon, at 9:30 p.m. Wednesday.

Riddle was passing the Trotter car when it made a left turn, patrolmen said. Trotter was cited for failing to signal a turn.

Police Report 'Very Good Leads' In Miami Child's Kidnap-Murder

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Moving swiftly to crack the brutal kidnap-murder of 7-year-old Judith Ann Roberts, homicide detectives grilled more than 30 men during the night and early today reported "very good leads."

Still to be questioned were about 40 more known sex perverts and child molesters rounded up since the body of the blue-eyed child was found yesterday, within sight of Miami's City Hall.

"We will work around the clock until this vicious slayer is in jail," said Detective Lt. Chester Eldredge, head of the homicide bureau, who is directing the investigation.

The FBI said it had no investigative jurisdiction in the case because the child's body was not taken across state lines.

Judith Ann, daughter of a Baltimore lawyer and labor leader, was raped and murdered and her body

Willard Man Is Hired For United Local

Harold Gates, superintendent of Willard Exempted Village schools for the past 18 years, was employed as superintendent of the United Local School system Wednesday night.

Gates signed a three-year contract with the United Local Board of Education at a starting salary of $6,000 a year. He is 50.

The school official, chosen from among nine applicants, received his Masters degree in Education from Ohio State University. He taught in several Ohio rural schools before accepting the position at Willard.

Married and the father of two, he plans to live at either New Garden or Winona.

County School Superintendent J. L. McBride said the new superintendent "came very highly recommended."

In other business, Mrs. Clara Bailey of Hanoverton, secretary, and four cooks were rehired by the board.

Summer Camp Period For Scouts Extended

LISBON — Ross Ludwig, Columbiana County boy scout executive, said today the summer camping period at Camp McKinley has been extended to July 24 to accommodate a Columbiana troop.

Four more troops will attend camp Monday. Since there are only four camp sites, Ludwig said, Troop 16 from Columbiana will attend the week of July 19.

Troops camping next week are Troop 5 of Salem, Troop 40 of East Fairfield, Troop 42 of East Liverpool and Troop 26 of Chester, W. Va.

Ludwig said 139 scouts have been at Camp McKinley since it opened June 20.

Marine Col. Schwable Gets Legion Of Merit

WASHINGTON (AP) — Marine Col. Frank H. Schwable, excused for signing a false germ warfare "confession" while a prisoner of the Reds in Korea, says he has received the Legion of Merit he won before his capture.

A Marine board of inquiry held that Schwable's action in signing the germ warfare confession was "excusable (as) the result of mental torture," and said he should not stand trial before a court-martial. The Marines have said, however, that his future assignments will be limited to those imposing "minimum demands."

Gas Firm Cuts Back Services

Operaing Deficit Also Affects Installations

Curtailment of services and a temporary freeze on new gas heating installations by the Natural Gas Co. of West Virginia and the Manufacturers Heat & Light Co. in this district was announced today as the result of an operating deficit.

Kenneth Harsh, district manager, said Bruce Cox, local manager for Natural Gas, said the move was caused by the recent action of the Ohio Public Utilities Commission which on June 17 trimmed $130,682 from a rate increase prtviously granted the company.

They explained that because of the sudden loss in revenue, the gas company was forcd to lay off 50 maintenance workers and curtail line extensions to new homes and the servicing of appliances.

The only repairs to be made, Mr. Harsh said, will be where there are complaints of leakage or fumes.

A spokesman for Natural Gas and also the Manufacturers Heat & Light, both subsidiaries of Columbia Gas System, said installation of new gas heating equipment in a nine-county Ohio area also has been halted.

Besides Salem, other nearby communities affected by the gas company cutbacks include Leetonia, Columbiana, Lisbon, New Waterford, Canfield, Alliance, Sebring, Salineville, Carrollton and Minerva.

Gas company officials explained that after the emergency rate increases were withdrawn by the state, both gas companies were unable to make interest payments on their present debts.

Employment Increased In U.S. During May

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government said today employment increased by nearly one million from May to June and unemployment, contrary to the usual seasonal pattern, showed almost no increase.

Employment rose during the month, according to a joint announcement by the Department of Commerce and the Department of Labor, from 61,119,000 in early May to 62,098,000 estimated for early June.

Meanwhile unemployment was estimated to have risen by no more than 42,000 during the month from 3,305,000 in early May to 3,347,000 in early June.

Upholds Dismissal Of Lattimore Charges

WASHINGTON (AP)—The U.S. Court of Appeals today upheld the dismissal of two perjury charges against Owen Lattimore, including the key count, but ordered two other counts reinstated.

The court agreed with U.S. Dist. Judge Luther W. Youngdahl that the key count, charging Latimore swore falsely when he said he was not a Communist sympathizer or promoter of Communist causes, was invalid.

The court also upheld dismissal of a charge that Lattimore committed perjury when he told the Senate Internal Security subcommittee that it was not necessary for him to have the permission of Communist authorities for a visit to Yenan, then the Communist stronghold in China, and that he made no prearrangements with Communists in order to get in.

The court upheld dismissal of the key count by a vote of 8-1. Chief Judge Harold M. Stephens dissented.

The government now has the option of putting Lattimore on trial on five perjury charges, or appealing to the Supreme Court in an effort to have the other counts reinstated.

In the present legal status of the case, Lattimore cannot appeal.

Elyria Drops Turnpike Suit

Truce Ends Battle Over Right-Of-Way

ELYRIA, Ohio (AP)—City council here last night voted 5-4 to drop court action now pending against the Ohio Turnpike Commission. The truce ends a bitter 2½-year-old battle over right-of-way within the city.

The city's opposition had threatened to hold up scheduled completion of the 241-mile Northern Ohio Turnpike. Completion date has been set for Oct. 1, 1955.

City officials wanted the toll road routed out of town while the commission said it would be too costly to change its plans. Officials here said the turnpike would hamper future city expansion.

Four miles of the turnpike will run through the city.

The council vote ending the dispute came after five days of negotiations between the commission and the city. But one councilman, Warren L. Robinson Jr., who voted to end court action, still claims Elyria is getting a 'salvage deal."

The arrangement agreed to by council provides that the city will vacate portions of three streets, eliminating the necessity of the commission building a $475,000 bridge.

Council said the city would be paid $135,000 in two installments for the property.

Court action had been pending in common pleas court here and the Second District Court of Appeals at Columbus.

The council's action came hours after the commission announced it had received an apparent low bid on the disputed four-mile section. Bids on the section were delayed by the dispute.

Commission officials at Columbus said A. J. Baltes Co., Inc., of Norwalk, Ohio, submitted the apparent low bid of $5,533,897. If the bid is approved at the commission's July 15 meeting in Columbus, all the roadway then will be under contract.

Following receipt of this final bid, the commission announced the total cost of the turnpike will be only slightly higher than originally estimated.

Commission members said final cost of the project will be $217,596,998.87 compared to the 1951 estimate of $211,875,568.

Congress Highlights

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Agriculture Committee takes up an Eisenhower administration proposal to set aside 2½ billion dollars worth of surplus farm products for such purposes as relief, foreign aid and stockpiling.

Meanwhile, Rep. Abernethy (D-Miss), a supporter of high, rigid price supports for basic farm crops, says he has been told House Republicans were subjected to "terrific pressure and stringent disciplinary action" to line them up last week for flexible price props.

HOUSE — A busy day faces the House, with a scheduled roll call vote on a bill to expand the vocational rehabilitation program to be followed by debate on a measure to extend unemployment compensation coverage to about four million additional workers in smaller businesses.

SENATE—The Senate considers legislation to expand the Export-Import Bank. Then it turns to a bill to create a reserve fund from which states could borrow to tide them over temporary emergencies caused by heavy drains on unemployment insurance funds.

In both the Senate and House, Democrats plan floor fights to try to boost jobless insurance benefits, but their chances of success look poor.

CHINA — Sen. George (D-Ga) says he would oppose any proposal to put Congress on record with formal notice that the United States would withdraw from the United Nations if the U.N. admits Red China. George, senior Democrat on the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, says such a move "might deprive us of freedom of action at a critical time." The senator says he does not now expect such a proposal to be offered.

FOREIGN AID — The Senate Foreign Relations Committee asks foreign aid chief Harold E. Stassen for an accounting of unspent overseas assistance funds as Sen. George calls for a two-billion-dollar cut in new money.

GIVES HOSPITAL RULING

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio Board of Building Standards yesterday ruled hospital operating and X-ray rooms now can be built without windows. The board issued a rule allowing alternate construction other than that set up by the state building code which specifies natural ventilation and natural light. Those asking the change said windowless rooms would be more sanitary. The change was approved after a public hearing on the application of a Cincinnati architect for a 1½ million dollar addition to a Middletown hospital.

Precipitation during July expected to exceed seasonal normals over most of western half of the nation.

Gas Company Offers Budget Plan Billing

A new budget payment plan designed to ease the impact of cold weather heating bills was offered to gas company customers here today. Under the plan, the Natural Gas Company's 10,200 heating customers have an opportunity to pay heating costs in ten monthly installments from September through June.

Advantage of the plan is that it eliminates the cold weather rise in heating bills which occurs when many other living costs are also higher, B. W. Cox, gas company manager here, said.

Budget payments begin with gas bills due in September for those who apply. The company is now accepting applications.

Under regular billings, a customer's monthly payments range from lows of about $4.50 in September and June to around $25 in January, Mr. Cox said. Under the budget system, the same customer's payments would be $15 a month from September through June and at a summertime level in July and August.

SUBMARINE IN DRYDOCK

LORAIN, Ohio (AP)—The U.S. Navy submarine Gar was in drydock at the American Ship Building Co. yards here today for repairs after going aground on rocks about a half-mile offshore in Lake Erie Tuesday night. Damage did not appear to be serious to the Gar, which is used as a training ship in Cleveland.

Tax Revenues Swell Ohio's Treasury

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A record $435,200,530 in tax revenues flowed into the state treasury during the 12-month period ending last June 30.

State Treasurer Roger W. Tracy issued the preliminary report on fiscal income today. He said the total is an increase of $26,239,805 over the $408,960,723 received by the state's general revenue fund during the previous fiscal year.

Commenting on the figures that are preliminary to his annual report, Tracy said:

"Despite rumors and unfounded reports to the contrary, it is most certainly gratifying to be in a position to present to the people of Ohio accurate statistical data showing that Ohio's financial house is in order and that various governmental functions are operating 'in the black.' "

Civil War Vet, 111, In 'Pretty Good' Shape

HOUSTON (AP) — Walter W. Williams, Veterans Administration doctors say, "is practically blind, has lost a few pounds and his hearing is bothering him."

But the 111-year-old Confederate veteran, oldest of four Civil War survivors, is in pretty good shape, everything considered. Dr. R. S. Wolfe said the old soldier's condition had changed little in the last year.

Williams comes to the VA regional office here for an annual checkup. He lives at Franklin, Tex. 50 miles north of here.

"We would like to furnish him with a hearing aid," Wolfe said, "but we simply haven't the money." He explained that federal law does not provide for care of Confederate veterans.

New Chemical Cures Cancer In Rats

NEW YORK (AP)—Development of a chemical compound that produced permanent cure of one type of transplanted cancer in 10 per cent of its trials on rats has been reported by the Sloan-Kettering Institute.

The Institute, which made the announcement yesterday, noted that "no chemical cures of any form of cancer in man have been achieved to date."

The Institute, research unit for the Memorial Center for Cancer & Allied Diseases, has the largest chemical testing program among cancer research units.

The report said the drug that routinely cured all cases of Jensen sarcoma in rats is known as TEM —triethylene melamine—and was developed at the institute.

The Institute's seventh annual progress report summed up the results of its research in chemical injection aimed at starging or poisoning cancer cells in mice and rats.

The results, the report said, "justify the hope that further study may reveal compounds capable of achieving permanent cure in man, not only of leukemia (blood cancer) but eventually of other forms of cancer now beyond control."

A compound combined of P165 and 6MP has been credited with curing 98 per cent of one type of leukemia in mice and with being effective in arresting some types of ltukemia in humans.

The Institute said its record with TEM on rats is believed to be the first 10 per cent effective cancer cure on animals with chemicals.

Woman Denied Stocks Mate Willed To City

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio Supreme Court today denied a Bellaire widow the right to obtain stocks willed by her husband to the city to help finance a library and community center.

Elizabeth N. Mellott sought to buy 40 shares of Union Savings Bank stock owned by her late husband, James F. Mellott. He died Aug. 10, 1952.

Mellott left a portion of his half-million dollar estate to Bellaire for the community project. His widow elected to take her portion of the estate under the law of descent and distribution rather than under the will.

Belmont County Probate Court said the bank shares were specifically bequeathed and turned down her petition to purchase them.

An appellate court reversed the decision. But the Supreme Court unanimously upheld the Probate Court ruling.

Akron Athlete Held In Fatal Beating

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—A former high school football player was held in county jail today in connection with the fatal beating of a 62-year-old man who was battered by a seven-pound lawn ornament.

Alfred Charles Crisp, 25, was quoted by poice as saying he thought Harry Eolmaskian and his 44-year-old wife, Alice, were "insulting me in a foreign language."

The Eolmaskians, an Armenian couple, were waiting for a bus Tuesday near Crisp's home and had asked him the time, police said.

Mrs. Eolmaskian also was beaten and was taken to a hospital in fair condition.

Crisp, held on $3,500 bond pending charges had played in the backfield of the 1947 West High School football team and was also on the school's basketball squad.

Columbiana Council Authorizes Payment Of Resurfacing Street

COLUMBIANA — Columbiana Council Tuesday evening ordered payment of the village share toward the resurfacing of Route 164 through town by instructing Clerk S. Richard Orr to send the state treasurer a check for 1,800 and authorized the board of public affairs to re-advertise for bids for the proposed addition to the water softener plant under revised plans and specifications.

The state has expanded its resurfacing project to include widening and resurfacing the .96 of a mile of concrete highway extending south from the corporation limits on Route 164, one of the first stretches of improved rural road in this vicinity.

The remaining 1.22 miles extends from the south corporation line on Lisbon St., W. Park Ave., the public square, and N. Main St. to the junction of Route 164 with Route 46, the remaining distance ing been embraced in the widening and resurfacing of Route 164 from Columbiana to North Lima.

The concrete roadway from the corporation line south will be widened to 20 feet from the present 16 feet, and the entire width will be given a black top surface. In town, the resurfacing will reduce possibly two or three inches the present nine feet, 11 inches clearance at the Pennsylvania Railroad underpass.

Fairfield township trustees, who have been considering an alternate route for trucks with loads too high for the underpass have looked over the situation in conjunction with the county commissioners and representatives of the railroad company.

At the intersection of Lisbon St. and W. Park Ave., the entire wide intersection will be re-surfaced, and on Park Ave. will extend back to a point about even with the front of the Donbar store. The public square will be resurfaced to within about 20 feet of the curb to preserve the height of the curb and the drainage. Streets involved will be resurfaced from curb to curb. The town pays eight cents a square yard for some 22,100 yards.

CLERK ORR read the budget of estimated receipts and expenditures for the fiscal year 1955, which was approved and set for public hearing at the next meeting, Tuesday evening, July 20.

A request of the cemetery board for a raise in the sexton's pay from $275 to $290 a month to equalize him with the park superintendent was tabled until the next meeting.

A committee of council will consult with Clarence Wining about a bill of $472 for damage to his property at 144 E. Park Ave. by a truck accident more than a year ago.

An excess of some $7 over the $1,017.50 cost to property owners for the seal coating at their own expense of N. Middle St. from Allen Ave. to W. Salem St., a distance of a couple of blocks, will go toward the expense of an alley intersection in conjunction with the town.

The street committee met with Seventh St. property owners relative to the improvement of that street at the expense of the owners. Separate projects may be made of the block from Main St. to Firestone Ave. and from Firestone east.

Police and mayor's court receipts for June were $1,072.51. Chief William McGuckin reported meter collections of $543.82, fines and costs in mayor's court of $179.50, and meter ticket fines of $70. Mayor Walter Thomas reported $279.50 more as the town's share from 39 state patrol cases.

Mrs. Vera Fraysier, new president of the Columbiana Business and Professional Women's Club, will meet with the officers and directors in the music studio of Mrs. Margaret Barrow at 7:30 p.m. today. Miss Helen Eckert, program co-ordination chairman, will meet with chairmen of all committees at the same hour and place a week later.

Expect 'Justifiable' Ruling In Boy's Death

CLEVELAND (AP) — A county prosecutor's ruling of justifiable homicide was expected today in the shooting to death of a 15-year-old boy by an American Airlines pilot.

Questioned by police, the pilot, Capt. William F. Bonnell told how Raymond A. Kuchenmeister Jr. bared into an airliner Tuesday at Cleveland Hopkins Airport and with a pistol, ordered Bonnell to "fly to Mexico or get shot."

The flight, which started in New York, was about to take off for St. Louis and Fort Worth, Texas. It had 53 passengers aboard.

Bonnell said he whipped out his own gun and fired, trying to avoid shooting toward the passengers or the plane's gasoline tanks.

He hit the 260-pound boy in the hip and chest, and the lad died an hour later in a hospital.

"I felt horrible when I heard he was a kid and had died," Bonnell said.

"I couldn't sleep all last night. Nobody could tell he was so young. He looked 25 to me. had to do it. I had the responsibility of the plane and passenegrs."

Four crew members also questioned by police substantiated Bonnell's account of the shooting.

The dead boy's mother said his trouble stemmed from his large size.

Standing five feet eleven, "he was too big to pass for a child and too young to get a man's job," she said.

He talked about going West to become a cowboy, she added, because he felt "out there they treat you like a man."

Health To You

By EDWIN P JORDAN M.D.

P'eurisy Is Inflammation of Lungs

Pleurisy probably should not be classified among the common diseases of mankind, but it is not exactly rare either, and no one who has ever suffered from pleurisy can ever forget it.

Dr. Jordan

The name comes from "pleura" which is a tissue lining the lungs. The pleura lies not only between the chest wall and the lungs, but also extends between the lobes of the lungs. It is inflammation of this lining and the symptoms which are caused thereby which is called pleurisy.

Acute pleurisy begins with a great deal of pain. Pain may be felt anywhere around the chest but is most common in front and low down. A dry and painful cough is common. In addition a deep breath also makes the pain worse. Fever is likely to be present.

When the doctor listens over the painful area with his stethescope, he can usually hear a rubbing sound made by the inflamed pleura underneath. When this rub is present the diagnosis is established. An X-ray also often helps to make the diagnosis.

The treatment is difficult. The underlying cause must be searched out and treated if possible. Bed rest during this acute stage is essential. Hot or cold applications and pain-killing drugs may be needed to bring some relief.

One form of treatment is to strap the painful side with a wide piece of adhesive tape which prevents some of the chest movements which produce the distress.

Fluid quite often accumulates in the space between the pleura and the chest wall. This is another difficult condition. but may be less painful than the dry variety. Usualy the fluid can be drawn out through a needle. If not caused by tuberculosis, this may be sufficient to bring relief after two or three treatments.

Besides acute pleurisy there is a chronic dry pleurisy and chronic pleurisy with accumulation of fluid. Either of the e may start gradually or can follow an acute attack. The chronic or dry pleurisy may drag on for weeks or months and be accompanied by a good deal of pain. If it lasts too long, the lung itself may be injured.

Atomic Plants In Operation Despite Strikes

OAK RIDGE, Tenn. (AP) — The nation's entire output of uranium-235, vital for atomic bombs, continued to be produced today by company workers at plants here and at Paducah, Ky. despite a strike by 4,500 CIO chemical workers.

The union posted picket lines early yesterday at the two plants after President Eisenhower had urged them to stay on the job until a fact-finding board could look into the wage dispute with Carbide and Carbon Chemicals Co., operator of the plants for the Atomic Energy Commission.

Meanwhile, it was indicated in Washington the government might go to court for an injunction, perhaps today.

The union is demanding a 15-cent hourly wage increase for its 3,500 workers here and 1,000 more at Paducah. The company has offered a 6-cent hourly boost retroactive to April 15. Wages now range from $1.58 to $2.40 hourly.

As the orderly picketing continued last night, Jess Hamon, president of the rival AFL Atomic Trades and Labor Council, urged Eisenhower to name an impartial arbitration board. Hamon suggested the board be "binding upon both sides."

His council represents 4,500 workers in two other atomic plants here.

The CIO union has made no attempt to block workers from their jobs, and AFL workers, as well as thousands of construction workers, streamed across the picket lines today.

Tom Fee, international representative of the CIO United Gas, Coke and Chemical Workers, said in Paducah yesterday that "we have had enough of fact finding. The strike is going to continue."

Supervisory and other salaried personnel were called on to operate the plants and the company said "full and maximum production" would be maintained indefinitely.

Stitch In Time

Whatever may prove to be the means of doing it, the United States will have let the Communist conspiracy know long before the meeting of the United Nations General Assembly in September that the fate of the organization is up to the Kremlin.

If it wants to destroy the only pretense it still maintains of being on an even footing with the governments it is trying to overthrow, the Kremlin will press for admittance of Communist China to the United Nations.

That would force the withdrawal of all further American support from the U.N. and force all other U.N. members to align themselves either for or against the United States in a new fabric of treaties and alliances. The United Nations would have no further existence.

There will be no room for doubt left on this point by the time Congress and the State Department have given the Kremlin fair warning of the consequences of trying to bring Communist China into the United Nations at gunpoint. The United States is taking a stitch in time.

The United Nations was to be, after all, something more than another multi-lateral alliance of disillusioned governments. The Charter of the United Nations contains some highly idealistic descriptions of its purposes.

In one place, it says that U.N. members "shall refrain in their international relations from the threat or use of force against the territorial integrity or political independence of any member or state, or in any other manner inconsistent with the purposes of the United Nations."

In another place, it says one of the purposes of the United Nations is "to maintain international peace and security, and to that end: To take effective collective measures for the prevention and removal of threats to the peace and for the suppression of acts of aggression or other breaches of the peace, and to bring about by peaceful means, and in conformity with the principles of justice and international law, adjustment or settlement of international disputes or situations which might lead to a breach of the peace."

The presence of the Soviet Union in the United Nations as a charter member has been a mockery of its purposes that has strained American patience to the breaking point.

If the Soviet Union, having betrayed the U.N. from the inside, were to succeed in bringing in a Chinese government branded by the U.N. as an aggressor in a war fought to repel aggression, there would be no sense in prolonging the mockery that the Kremlin has made of the dream of cooperative security.

Why Not The Grand Canyon?

Much is heard about the wallop of visual selling of intangible ideas. As we understand it, this is the technique of converting into shapes, symbols, masses etc. those things which otherwise would be left to a prospect's imagination.

For example, if the idea to be sold were the advantages of a certain kind of insurance, the salesman would equip himself with graphs and "pictographs" to give the abstractions substance, shape and color.

The technique comes to mind as the result of reading about some of the things being done with the 1954 wheat crop. It is being stored in huge piles in the open, under circus tents, in airplane hangars, warehouses, the mothball fleet and, or course, in every available place originally designed for grain storage.

A billion-bushel crop this year is competing for space with last year's carryover of almost that much. This is what Secretary of Agriculture Benson is talking about when he asks for flexible price supports, so he can drop the price of wheat down to a point where overproduction will not be feasible year after year.

But many farm-bloc congressmen can't see it that way. They are persistently and chronically obtuse about the wheat surplus. They regard it as an abstraction instead of a reality. One can only wonder under the circumstances whether it would help to fill up the Grand Canyon with the surplus wheat, then invite all the farm-block congressmen to come and walk over it from one side to the other.

Would that convince them the United States is piling up more wheat than it has any prospect of needing?

Truth In An Error

The other day a congressman who'd been invited to a certain gathering sent his regrets. By way of explanation, he telegraphed that "office cuties" prevented his appearance.

It was a typographical error but the lawmaker said what a lot of busy boys really ought to say when they be g off from fancy functions or from going home to dinner.

Whether you're in business or government, there are plenty of 'official cuties" around. And apparently some of them pack enough influence to prevent your appearance in places not of their choosing.

Fine Point of Law

By DAVID LAWRENCE

3 Branches Of Government Entirely Separate

Absence from the country during the McCarthy-Stevens hearings did not permit a study of the testimony at the time by this writer, but an examination since of the many comments made in letters and public statements concerning the constitutional rights involved in a portion of the controversy leads to the impression that there is a widespread misunderstanding as to what is the settled law of the land concerning the relations of the executive and legislative branches of the government.

The rather widely publicized theory that a United States Senate committee would be doing something illegal if it obtained from an employe of the executive branch of the government information which the employe himself is forbidden to disclose, and used the data — was demolished by the U.S. Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia. It was never overruled by the Supreme Court of the United States.

Judge Groner who spoke for a unanimous court of appeals in November 1936 noted in his opinion that the Federal Communications Commission and the senate committee investigating lobbying had ben accused of conspiring to violate the provisions of the Constitution relating to unlawful search and seizure and to the freedom of the press.

What was at issue was an order served on the Western Union Telegraph Co. to produce messages passing between the head of a group of newspapers and some of his associates in other cities. It was asserted by the telegraph company that the messages were confidential and that it would be a violation of federal law to disclose them.

THE FCC ORDERED it done and the messages were turned over to Hugo Black, then Democratic senator from Alabama, who was chairman of the Senate's Investigating Committee and who not long afterward was appointted to the Supreme Court of the United States by President Roosevelt. Mr. Black is a member of the high court now and as a senator would not have knowingly committed an illegal act.

Judge Groner ruled that the teleraph company should not have surrendered the messages for the purpose of any disclosdre of their contents and that the FCC, while having a right to examine them, did not have any right to transmit them to the Senate rommittee.

The rourt of appeals said:

"We are of the opinion that the resolution adopted by the Commission, under which its agents took possession of the telegraph companits' offices and examined wholesale the thousands of private telegraph messages received and dispatched there from over a period of seven months — for the purpose of securing to the Senate committee knowledge of the contents of the messages — was without authority of law and contrary to the very terms of the sion was constituted."

WHEN IT CAME to defining the rights of Sen. Black or his investigating committee, the U.S. Court of Appeals held that the courts were without power to interfere. It said:

"The prayer of the bill (of complaint) is that the committee be restrained from keeping the messages or making any use of them or disclosing their contents. In other words, that it we find that the method adopted to obtain the telegrams was an invasion of appellant's legal rights, we should say to the committee and to the Senate that the contents could not be disclosed or used in the exercise by the Senate of its legitimate functions.

"We know of no case in which it has been held that a court of equity has authority to do any of these things. On the contrary, the universal rule, so far as we know it, is that the legislative discretion in discharge of its constitutional functions, whether rightfully or wrongfully exercised, is not a subject for judicial interference.

"The Constitution has lodged the legislative power exclusively in the Congress. If a court could say to the Congress that it could use or could not use information in its posses ion, the independence of the legislature would be destroyed and the constitutional separation of the powers of government invaded. Nothing is better settled than that each of the three great departments of government shall be independent and not subject to be controlled directly or indirectly by either of the others."

SO THE CASE boils down to the fact that while a president of the United States may forbid any employe in the executive branch from furnishing information to Congress and may fire the employe with or without giving any reasons, this does not mean that a senator or representative — who encourages an employe to risk his job by furnishing information to Congress in violation of the orders of his superior — is himself necessarily involved in any violation of law.

The court went further and said that even if information unconstitutionally acquired is disclosed in debate or discussion, the Senate committes cannot be enjoined against its use.

At the same time the court, expressing the pious hope that Senate committees wouldn't damage the rights of the citizens by such use, admitted it was only a hope —not a means of legal coercion.

Notice Of Resignation

By TRUMAN TWILL

Apparently the dignity of face and bearing that has caused us to be mistaken at various times for a fishing guide, a mortician, a sideshow freak and a preacher also has caused us to be mistaken for a baseball umpire.

On a few occasions we have gone along with this gag, pursuant to our notion that baseball is a lot of nonsense taken far too seriously for the good of the kind or people who are capable of taking that kind of thing seriously.

This has landed us in trouble, because next to a woman scorned hell hath no fury like a baseball player not taken as seriously as he takes himself. We finally were severed permanently from the umpire's post at departmental beerbal games.

The beerball players took a dim view of being euchered out of their just desserts by arbitrary decisions which were so palpably prejudiced that even the babes in arms could smell the larceny. But what neither the babes nor the ball players knew was the motive behind this travesty on fair play and honest officiating.

The motive was to minimize the difference in skill between the opposing teams. This is the quintessence of fair play—to put in a few licks for the brotherhood of man and the dignity of the species. Nothing could be more unbrotherlike than to run up a score against amateurs playing beerball for fun. Their foolish contests should end in ties, like matches between football teams of equal ability. If no limit can be fixed on the nunber of innings, the next best thing is to hold the winning beerball team to a one-run advantage. This will be nothing to brag about.

Due to circumstances that were not beyond control, no umpiring assignments had come our way for several years, unil the recent holiday wekend. Then opportunity knocked and was answered last weekend.

It was a hard-fought game of holiday beerball. The sides were evenly matched. The umpire was dedicated to the proposition that he would kep the contest in balance. Nevertheless the team with the last chance to bat was eight runs behind going into the bottom of the seventh, the last inning, because the picnic spread had been made ready and the ladies had laid down the law.

In that half inning, judicious umpiring combined with lusty batting and inept fielding made up the difference of eight runs. The game ended with the score tied, 23 to 23.

There was no joy in Mudville. The players who weren't in open derision were in silent contempt. There was no acceptance of the credo that beerball should not be taken seriously.

It will be surprising if this does not prove to be our last opportunity to put in a few licks for the brotherhood of man and the dignity of the species. Even in as innocent a cow-pasture pastime as beerball on a national holiday, old species Americanus wants to go for the jugular.

We are herewith handing in our umpirical prerogatives. If men do not want to behave like brothers, we are tired of cheating in their behalf.

The Situation In Hanoi

By GEORGE E. SOKOLSKY

In the building of a universal state, it is sometimes necessary to give the appearance of retreat in order more skillfully to move forward. Such wars as World War I and World War II had to be fought in as much a hurry as possible because war exhausts not only the defeated but the victors. In building a universal state, however, time is not of the essence. The object is to accumulate states by infiltration and adhesion—a slower, less costly process.

Sokolsky

The French accept their defeat in Indochina and are making the best of it by an apparent compromise. They are retreating from Hanoi and the Chinese Communists will apparently give up Laos and Cambodia. Laos and Cambodia can wait until the People's Republic of Indochina, supported by the Chinese Communists, moves, on its own, to unify the whole of Indochina into a federation of autonomous republics.

WHO SHALL GAINSAY the "voluntary" organization of such a federation—the will of the people? And who shall in 1957 or 1958 say that it is not the will of the people?

How easy it becomes to conquer countries when it is unnecessary to fight for them! Soviet Russia has not lost a man in the Korean or the Indochina wars.

All that needs to be done is to create a new, high-sounding slogan, something that is essentially true in thought but utterly false in application, something like "co-existence" Why, in truth, should not nations with different systems of life co-exist? They always have in the past. Therefore, use "co-existence" as a method for conquest, just as the word, Democracy, worked so well at Yalta and Potsdam.

Tonkin and Annam in Indochina are now part of the Soviet Universal state, mastered by the Chinese Communists. These two countries have for centuries been under Chinese cultural and political influence. Sometimes, they were actually controlled by Chinese emperors, long before the French moved into the Red River Valley.

CAMBODIA is altogether a different kind of a country. The people are of Khmer origin. The Khmers must have been a highly civilized people as the ruins at Angkor Vat indicate. These buildings of surprising beauty could only have been planned and built by men of a high state of culture.

Some Siamese may also be of Khmer origin, although that country consists of many races. At any rate, Cambodia is closer to Siam culturally that it is to Annam or Tonkin where Chinese influences are greater. In fact, Siam once annexed Angkor but was induced to restore that city to Cambodia.

As the Red River is the main thoroughfare between Tonkin and China, so the Mekong River is the leading river of Cambodia, also flowing from China passing through Laos into Cambodia which it traverses to its delta on the South China Sea. That delta is one of the richest rice producing areas in te world.

Its value to Communist China cannot be underestimated and therefore it must be assumed that its conquest will not be too long delayed.

But for this delta the Soviet universal state can afford to wait rather than to risk a fighting war which must involve Russia itself.

IF THE FRENCH can be induced to withdraw from Indochina and if the United States can be discouraged from going in, the question of the successor-state arises. If a Communist Indochina government is recognized by France, does not that government become the successor state? Does not France, in effect, establish it as the successor-state?

In 1954, that question will not arise, but in 1955 or in 1956 when other issues attract attention, will not the Communist government of Indochina, after it had been recognized by France, as it is de facto being so recognized now, claim its rights as the successor-state to a unified Indochina which must include Laos, bordering on Burma, and Cambodia on the Gulf of Siam?

So the new empire builds itself, step by step, patiently outwearing opposition, devising slogans which appeal to the Western eye and ear, to the lust for peace, a desire so great in our country and in Great Britain that it becomes a lure.

Perhaps there is no other course but to give in until a place is found where a stand can be made effectively. Such a stand could not be made effectively in Indochina except by bombing the mainland of China.

Oppenheimer Perspective

By RAYMOND MOLEY

In a cautious interview with the press after the fnal decision on his case by the Atomic Energy Commision, Dr. J. Robert Oppenheimer said that he hoped scholars would read the record because "there is something to be learned from it."

I can join in the hope that a lot of scientists and several publicists and others will read not only the record, but the record of what they said in the public prints.

Without waiting for any public report on the case and even after the report of the Gray Personnel Security Board, many of Oppenheimer's scientific and journalistic friends made a good many foolish and mischievous statements, and Sen. Morse rushed to his feet saying, among other things, that the Gray report was schizophrenic. In more measured terms but with a similar import, Vannevar Bush contributed a long article in which he presumed to speak the minds of "scientists generally."

ONE WRITER went so far as to say that the United States needed Oppenheimer more than he needed the United States. That is to say that, after this nation has worried along without all the distinguished departed Americans of the past, we have at last found the indispensable man.

Such a comment also fails to take account of the fact that whatever Oppenheimer had of education, of opportunity for research and for distinction, he could not have had without the help of many American agencies, public and private.

There also has been the open threat in many quarters that scientists would no longer give their best, that they would drag their fet or refuse to serve their country if Oppenheimer were declared a risk.

This closely approaches blackmail, and since the Commission has defied such disloyal talk, it remains to be seen if responsible scientists will not by their actions and words repudiate such suggestions.

ANOTHER LINE of comment was that Oppenheimer was 'politically immature' and, for some curious reason, not to be held responsible for his chronic support of subversive causes and persons. The question raised by this is how big a fool does an important man have to be to be absolved from responsibility for his acts?

Vannevar Bush speaks of the need that scientists be "solidly united" and then continues by saying that they are united and they protest what is now going on.

And so we have a group which is essential to the national security presuming to say that they and they alone will decide what security means. This, indeed, is arrogating to a professional group a function which in the nature of things must belong to legally constituted officers of government.

The determination of what security means is a relative thing, of course, but it is something that some specific somebody or somebodies must define.

They must define it in the light of the peril that threatens our country. Those somebodies have decided it will serve science as well as the nation if scientists get back to their laboratories and go to work.

SCIENTISTS OUGHT, after reading the record, to recognize that Oppenheimer in his dabbling with the Communists was not pursuing the cause of freedom. He was helping a menacing power that has specifically repudiated the cause of freedom.

Scientists also should recognize that truth and the pursuit of truth is the basic principle of a scientist.

Oppenheimer was not behaving in the light of that principle when on one occasion after another he told that which was not the truth.

Once Over

By H. I. PHILLIPS

Joe Doakes And Dr. Oppenheimer

The holiday weekend gave Joe Doaks a little time to reflect on the recent four-to-one verdict denying security clearance to Dr. Robert Oppenheimer. (He remained a little uncertain whether this was the final or semi-final verdict.) However, these questions kept annoying him:

1. How could there be such slow motion as this in a field of atomic speed?

2. How can you bar from top atomic secrets a man who is loaded with all the top atomic secrets?

3. How secure is our present state of security when a man who had so much to do with it is barred as a security risk for performances when he was directing Uncle Sam's security?

Mr. Doakes likes to feel that any headman in "Operation Security" has never known a day when he could admire the Communist line, picnic with commies, give a plugged dime to a commie cause or lunch in Paris with a man pretty well identified as a Red leader.

Doakes has never given a commie the right time. He has trouble understanding those who have been palsy-walsy at any time or any place under any conditions. But it is when he takes a gander at the dissenting verdict by the one scientist member of the "jury," Dr. Henry D. Smyth, that Mr. Doakes calls for the aspirin and cries, "It must of been sumpin I ate."

Believe it or not, Dr. Smyth uses words like "reprehensible conduct," "inexcusable" and "belated report of attempted espionage" against Dr. Oppenheimer, and yet concludes that it "LEAVES A PICTURE OF DR. OPPENHEIMER AS AN ABLE, IMAGINATIVE human being with NORMAL HUMAN WEAKNESSES"!!! Brother, how normal can your human weaknesses get in the atomic war age?

But you ain't heard nuthin yet. Dr. Smyth adds, "Persistent and long associations with Communists, since they have been limited since the war, are nothing but the occasional incidents of a complex life"-!! We thought we had heard everything ever offered in defense of lads who had been somewhat palsy-walsy with the party liners!

If Dr. Smyth hasn't taken your breath away by this time, he comes up with the declaration that the security system shouldn't be taken too much to heart, anyhow, and says that if a man "misunderstands his obligations to a security system (even on a job that means the difference between life and death for millions) it is nothing but an error calling for reproof, not disbarment."

There is still more, bub. "With respect to the alleged disregard of the security system I would suggest that the system itself is nothing to worship," says the scientist in his dissenting opinion. Omigosh! Pardon, Joe Doakes, Doctor, if on the brink of an abyss he shows a little worship of security.

And going back to that "nothing but an error" crack, Doctor, the error column these days can mean costly hits and runs. But are you talking of baseball or a fight for survival? Huh?

Joe Doakes hasn't any doubt whatever about Dr. Oppenheimer's loyalty. But as he reasons it, a man can be 100 per cent loyal and, on his past performances, not be the best man to sit on a top job when a slight mistake of judgment or some pressure out of the past might make for disaster.

Joe is no "brain." He skipped the science classes even in grade school. He doesn't know much. But he has horse sense. And has a fear of errors in a world gone mad.

Bill Benton, himself a top advertising man, says 'TV is giving signs of being muscelbound' and is "following radio down the road to trivialization." When you talk like that, smile, Bill.

In Yellowknife, Northwest Territory, the radio station has no regular or professional talent. This wipes out all jokes about Liberace, references to Jack Benny's tightness or gags about Hope and Crosby.

Democrats Plan 'Benefits' Fights

But Insurance Hike Prospects Seem Dim

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democrats planned floor fights today in both the House and Senate to try to increase unemployment insurance benefits, but their prospects appeared dim.

The House scheduled action on a bill by Rep. Daniel A. Reed (R-NY) to extend unemployment compensation coverage to about four million additional workers in smaller businesses. The Senate called up a bill to create a reserve fund from which states could borrow to tide them over temporary emergencies caused by heavy drains on unemployment insurance funds.

Democrats led by Sen. Kennedy (D-Mass) and Rep. Forand (D-RI) prepared amendments to both of these bills to try to write in an increase in benefits and longer payment periods for the jobless. Neither bill as it stands now would change benefits.

Forand said in an interview that President Eisenhower has called for action along the lines of his proposed amendments, but that Eisenhower has tried to "pass the buck to the states" to improve the program, a federal-state undertaking. Eisenhower has urged that state legislatures act to raise jobless benefits.

Forand said there is no indication that the states will do this.

The Democratic amendment would require each state to pay benefits for 26 weeks. Present state laws vary from 16 to 26½ weeks.

It also would provide that maximum benefits would be not less than two thirds of each state's average weekly wage, with a minimum for each individual of 50 per cent of his own wages. This would guarantee maximums of $32 to $56 in the various states. At present, the maximums run fro $20 to $33 with a national average payment of about $24.50.

Republican leaders in both House and Senate denounced this program as unsound and said they were confident it would be beaten. Some Democrats agreed.

Memory For Faces Traps Suspected Slayer

BOSTON (AP)—Because of a detective's memory for faces, Jacob Heim, 21, of Boston, was in custody today on a murder charge.

Police Capt. Francis Sliney said Heim admitted fatally knifing Donald Ensell, 26, of Jefferson, Ohio, a truck driver, in an early morning street fight yesterday at Tremont and Warrenton Sts. Sliney said Heim told him the fight started after Ensell made insulting remarks to Heim and two friends.

Special officer Thomas F. Cunningham's memory solved the case. He read a description of the knife wielder and recalled that a man of the same description was with a juvenile he had questioned early on July 4. Cunningham located the juvenile and got him from the name and address of his companion.

Ensell was stabbed seven times, once in the heart, with a pen knife. The weapon was recovered from a sewer.

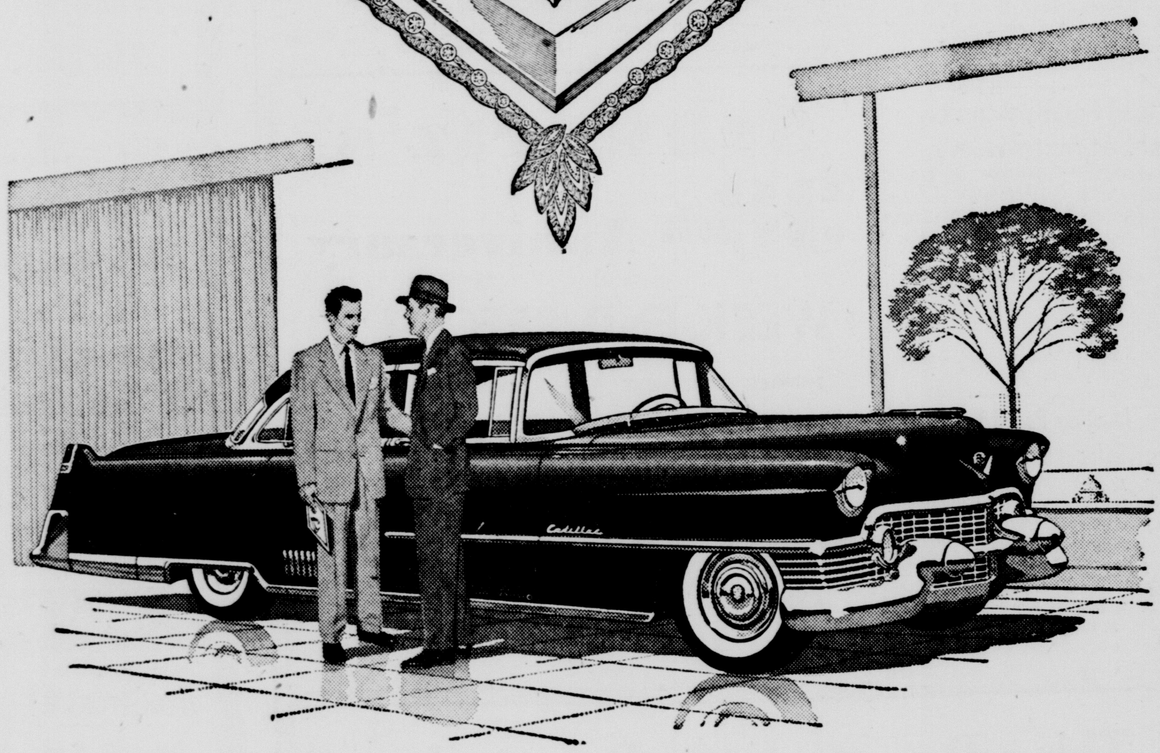
Cadillac



No Compromise This Time!

It was over twenty years ago that he took title to his first motor car—and, since that time, he has owned and driven almost a dozen different automobiles.

And yet, every time he accepted the keys to a new car, he knew in his heart that it was a compromise.

For—like so many millions of his fellow men—he had his heart set on a Cadillac!

Well, there's no compromise this time! The magic moment has arrived. The papers are all in order . . . the keys are in his hand . . . and the car of his dreams is waiting for him to take the wheel. It's his!

And, if you could but ride with him on that first journey, you'd understand what it means to have a motoring dream come true.

You'd see excitement in his eyes as he rolls majestically through the city's traffic—and puts his Cadillac through its thrilling paces on the open road.

You'd see honest pride in his face as he sits, calmly and serenely in the driver's seat, and catches the admiring glances of his fellow motorists.

And you'd sense the joy in his heart as he turns down that familiar street and heads for the happiest homecoming of the year!

In short, you'd witness a motorist in his finest hour—living out an experience that has no counterpart in the world of transportation. It is a thrill and an inspiration and an education—all rolled into one.

A friend of ours put it this way. "There are two kinds of automobiles," he told us. "There are Cadillacs—and there are all the others."

Whether or not you've driven "all the others", we can't say. But of one thing we are certain: Until you've spent an hour in the driver's seat of a 1954 Cadillac, your motoring education is not complete.

Why not come in soon and do so?

Golf Club Women Enjoy Flag Tournament, Dinner

Thirty members of the Women's Association of the Salem Golf Club took part in a "flag" tournament Tuesday and later 34 enjoyed lunch in the clubhouse.

Mrs. A. A. Parker, association president, conducted the meeting of directors and executive officers at the luncheon hour during which Mrs. Alfred Konnerth, tourney chairman, awarded prizes to the winners in the competition in June.

Plans for "Derby Day" next Tuesday were discussed and the members planned a special party at the clubhouse this Saturday night to complete the derby day agenda.

Dancing also will be part of the evening's entertainment and a "snack" table will be set up for members and their guests.

Olive Ramsey was winner in Flight A in the "flag" tourney and Mrs. John Gonda had low putts with a score of 15. In Flight B, Mrs. William Stevenson took the honors, while Mrs. George Perrault and Mrs. S. W. Hone tied for low putts with 16.

Winner in Flight C was Mrs. Elmer Detwiler and low putt winners were Mrs. Wallace King and Mrs. Robert Maurer, with 18 each.

Youth Crusade Rally To Be Held Saturday

The Tri-County Holiness Youth Crusade, an interdenominational organization, has planned a final rally of the year for Saturday night at the Sebring Camp Ground tabernacle.

This organization, supported by 40 different local bodies, is under the leadership of Rev. Odell Powell of Beloit. This meeting, postponed from June, will be a farewell for two of the leaders. Election of new officers will be held. Rev. Powell is entering the evangelistic field and Rev. Howard Moore, song leader and secretary, is scheduled to leave soon for the Island of Formosa as a missionary.

This meeting also will be a forerunner of the annual Sebring Camp Meeting that will hold its 50th encampment beginning Thursday July 15, and continuing through the 25th.

Music and a final message from Rev. Powell, the retiring president, will feature the meeting The music will include hymn transcriptions by Mrs. Paul Brantingham, pianist, and the four Brantingham brothers in quartet numbers. Congregational singing will be under the leadership of Rev. Moore.

Student To Preach At Highland Church

George Hampshire of Gibsonia, Pa., student at Mt. Union College, will preach Sunday, July 18, at the 11 a.m. worship service in the Highland Christian Church.

Following the service the congregation will vote on extending the student minister a call to preach through the next year, beginning in September.

Harry Lichy, another Mt. Union ministerial student, has been pastor at the church and will continue until fall.

Quota Club Meets At Park, Hears Report On Clubhouse

Thirty-five Quota Club members and guests enjoyed a chicken pie supper at Centennial Park Thursday evening.

Miss Ruth Hoch presided at the business meeting that followed. An invitation was extended to the group to join East Liverpool Quotarians who are celebrating their club's sixth birthday Tuesday, July 13, at 6:30 p.m. at the Liverpool Country Club.

A letter of thanks was read from Floyd Lower for a contribution which will enable a delegate to attend the 4-H Club Congress.

Mis Hoch announced that several new clubs have been formed and that the Quota International Convention will be held June 26-30, 1955 at Alberta Canada.

Members were asked to report all service hours for civic projects to Miss Edith Forbes. Plans for a benefit in the fall were outlined by Mrs. Esther Messersmith. The club's intercity party was scheduled for Sept. 26 at the Salem Golf Club.

Mrs. Eve Paparodis, who is program chairman for the coming year, asked for program suggestions from the group, and Miss Elsie Thomas requested that members who have to miss a dinner meeting call her to cancel their reservations by the Saturday before the meeting.

The progress of remodeling at the Ruth Smucker House and other plans concerning the meeting place were related by Miss Forbes, the club's delegate to the Salem Federation of Women's Clubs.

Tuesday, July 20, the group will meet at the Smucker House.

Former Students Hold 27th Annual Reunion

The 27th annual reunion of former students at McCann's School on the Winona - Bridgewater Rd. Sunday, June 27, turned out to be the last scheduled reunion due to lack of interest.

Ernest Woolf, reunion president, and Mrs. Joseph Vogelhuber, secretary, assisted by Myrtle Altenhof, Arlene Raber, Lela Mercer, Mrs. Ester Mercer, Mrs. Arthur Mountz and Mrs. Woolf, planned the annual affair at Butler Grange hall.

Following the basket dinner the members present agreed to turn the reunion treasury over to the grange and call off annual meetings until further notice. Most of the group went from the grange to Lake Placentia where they witnessed the Butler Grange team play in grange baseball competition.

Butler Grange hall is situated about a half mile from McCann's school building which has been converted into a private home.

Heather Henderson was a guest at the Tuesday afternoon meeting of the Nimble Thimble 4-H Club in the home of Mrs. Frank Henderson of the Depot Road.

The minutes read by Ann Stanley were approved. Ann Stanley and Mary Jane Calvin gave a demonstration on how to wash dishes.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Henderson and Ann.

The next meeting, Tuesday, July 13, will be at 2 p.m. at the home of Sandra Birkhimer of the Salem Country Club Drive. Margie Wagmiller will give a demonstration.

BARBECUED CHICKEN

One young chicken (1½ or 2½ pounds) cut in half. Use giblets and neck

For the barbecue sauce:

1 teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon garlic salt
½ teaspoon pepper
1 tablespoon paprika
1 tablespoon sugar
1 medium onion, finely chopped
1 cup catsup
¼ cup fat
½ cup giblet stock or water
1-3 cup lemon juice or vinegar
1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce

Clean and cook giblets. Prepare barbecue sauce: blend salt, pepper, paprika, and sugar in saucepan. Add onion, catsup, fat and water. Heat to boiling. Remove from heat. Add lemon juice and Worcestershire sauce. For basting during cooking, blend 1-3 cup sauce and 1-3 cup giblet stock. Set aside remaining sauce for serving with cooked chicken.

Place neck and halves of chicken in skillet or Dutch oven. Baste both sides of chicken with the diluted sauce. Cover tightly and bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) about 1 hour. Baste once or twice. Remove cover, baste with diluted sauce and continue cook ing uncovered until chicken is tender and browned, about 1 hour.

If a crisp skin is desired, place basted chicken skin-side-up under broiler. Broil 2 or 3 minutes. Watch it, since it browns very rapidly. Total cooking time is about 2 hours. Serve hot with barbecue sauce (undiluted) to which pan juices and chopped cooked giblets have been added.

23,000 Goodyear Co. Employes Go On Strike

CINCINNATI (AP)—A breakdown in contract negotiations today brought the first strike in eight years to plants of the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Co.

The CIO United Rubber Workers directed its 23,000 members in Goodyear plants to quit work in 10 cities at midnight last night.

First reports that the strike actually was in effect came from plants in Akron and St. Mary's Ohio; Muncie, Ind., Los Angeles; Topeka, Kan.; Lincoln, Neb.; and Gadsden, Ala.

At the company headquarters in Akron, 13,000 workers went on strike. Pickets were posted at all plants and production was halted immediately.

Other plants are at Jackson, Mich.; New Bedford, Mass.; and Windsor, Ont.

Broke Up Last Night

Negotiations broke up here last night after both sides refused to yield in a dispute over a wage increase. The company held fast to its offer of a pay boost of 5 cents an hour. The union insisted that was not sufficient and did not make ocrrections sought in wage differentials in "low-paid plants."

Negotiators had been meeting here since June 22. A previous meeting, held at Canton, Ohio, recessed May 4.

The union never has disclosed its exact demands.

Negotiations here for Goodyear were part of a series of meetings being conducted for the rubber industry. The contracts expire next February but were brought up under a reopening clause. Union representatives are meeting in Cleveland with the Firestone and General Tire and Rubber companies. A meeting with the U.S. Rubber Co. is being held in New York and a recessed session with Goodrich is scheduled to be resumed here next Tuesday.

Get $2.08 Per Hour

At Goodyear, the workers now average $2.08 an hour.

L. S. Buckmaster, general president of the union, said, "The strike was caused by the refusal of Goodyear to grant an adequate wage increase and to make any substantial correction of wage differentials in their low-paid plants."

He said the union was willing to continue the negotiations today but that the company said it was not ready.

Fred W. Cimer, Goodyear's vice president of industrial relations, who headed the company's negotiators, said the company would be glad to resume negotiations at Akron.

Climer's statement, issued after the breakdown of negotiations, said the CIO United Steelworkers had accepted a 5-cent increase from U. S. Steel and that several unions in the electrical industry had accepted similar terms.

County Farm Group Has Quarterly Session

LISBON — The quarterly meeting of the Columbiana County Agricultural Extension Advisory Committee was held Wednesday night at the Courthouse. Thirteen of the 15-member committee, composed of representatives of farm organizations, attended.

Floyd Lower, county extension agent, said he has had several prospects for the position of associate county agent but that satisfactory arrangements could not be made. He said that he has one good candidate for the post now.

The committee voted to increase membership to 21.

Reports were given on 4-H activity, leadership, and home demonstration work. The group formulated a program to expand the knowledge of farm and home planning. Ralph Schneider of North Georgetown, chairman, conducted business.

Says Pressure Tactics Used In Congress

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Abernethy (D-Miss) said today he has been told House Republicans were subjected to "terrific pressures and stringent disciplinary action" to line them up last week for flexible farm price supports.

Abernethy is a member of the House Agriculture Committee and a backer of the present system of rigid price supports, which the House refused to extend, voting instead for a flexible plan modified somewhat from administration proposals.

"Many Repubicans quiety complained that every possible method of disciplinary action was exercised to whip some of their colleagues in line,' Abernethy said in a statement.

"It was strongly rumored . . . that officials in the offices of the Republican National Committe had told members who were inclined to vote for the committee bill that unless they voted with the administration . . . that no money would be made available for their forthcoming campaigns."

Abernethy said one Republican who was "very bitter about it" told him Republicans were "subjected to terrific pressures and stringent disciplinary action." He did not name this GOP member.

The test came on an amendment, approved 229-170, providing flexible price supports for basic farm crops ranging between 82½ per cent to 90 per cent of parity, a standard said by law to give farmers a fair return in relation to their costs.

The Agriculture Committee had recommended rigid supports at 90 per cent of parity. The administration asked for flexible supports ranging from 75 to 90 per cent of parity.

Man Loses House Keys, Calls Fire Department

CHICAGO (AP)—Fire engines sped to a South Side home yesterday in response to an alarm and the firemen found Clifton Gooch, 38, waiting for them.

"There's no fire, boys," Gooch told the firemen. "But I need one of your long ladders. I live on the third floor and lost my keys."

Gooch, a cook, was arrested for turning in a false alarm and for disorderly conduct. He was fined $10 and costs on each charge.

A mixed bull terrier-Labrador retriever, Boots was also a hero in Iwo Jima and Guam with the Marines during World War II. His owner, ex-Marine Sgt. Michael Nuzzola, trained Boots when they were in the service together.

Akron Police Arrest 8 Utility Strikers

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—Police arrested eight members of the striking CIO Utility Workers Union yesterday and charged them with inciting a riot at the Ohio Edison Co.'s gorge power plant.

The arrests came while federal mediators sought a settlement in the dispute between the company, which serves 1,500,000 persons in Northeast Ohio, and the union, which represents 2,200 employes.

Some power failures were reported in scattered areas, and supervisors formed crews to repair broken lines.

Police captain Stephen McGowan, who read the riot act to the eight pickets, said they had parked three automobiles across the entrance to the gorge plant, and tried to prevent a truck from entering. The truck was carrying food to supervisors manning the plant.

The eight pickets were freed on their own $500 recognizance bond and a hearing was set for today.

Richard Hartley, chairman of the Ohio Edison union's joint council called the police action "just silly." He said the pickets "didn't incite any riot."

separate parking meter fund was maintained"

Costs Increased.

"6. The city operation and maintenance costs increased progressively throughout the period covered by this report. In total, they were 12.2 per cent higher in 1953 than the corresponding payments for similar services during 1950. The most marked increase occurred in those payments made by the city general, street maintenance and repair, police pension and firemens pension funds."

However, the research director added, the 12.2 per cent increast is far below that of many cities of comparative size.

"7. Between 1950 and 1954 total payments for personal services increased by 61.5 per cent in Salem. During the same period the number of employes on the city payroll rose by only 11.6 per cent. It must be admitted that the salary level in Salem was comparatively low in 1950 but further increases in personal service costs without ample sources of revenue are financially indefensible.

"8. Personnel added to the payroll to meet the demands of seasonal employment has been retained during the winter months. In July, 1954 there were 97 employees on the city payroll. The corresponding number on the payroll in January, 1954, was 96.

"9. While City Council has enacted new legislation providing for a sewer service charge, the entire cost of sewage disposal service for teh first six months of the current year has been appropriated from the city general fund. Consequently, the cost of this service must be met from general fund income until such time as the collection of the new sewer service charges will be sufficient to meet the operating expenses.

Cleveland Man Kills 1, Wounds 3 With Knife

CLEVELAND (AP)—A man wielding a butcher knife ran into an East Side rooming house early today, killed one man and injured three other persons.

Dead was Walter Russell, 35, who lived at the rooming house.

Adrian Harvey, 17, Dorothy Johnson, 22, and Robert Fisher were treated at a hospital for cuts on the backs and hands. They were not seriously injured.

Homicide detectives said the slasher was described as a 28-year-old man who had a jealous hatred of Russell. He was not identified.

Board Named To Investigate A-Plant Strike

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower today named a three-member fact finding board to investigate the strike of 4,500 atomic energy plant workers. The board began its inquiry at once.

Appointment of the board, headed by former atomic energy commissioner Thomas Keith Glennan, is a major step toward ending walkouts at the Oak Ridge, Tenn. and Paducah, Ky., plants which threaten production of the vital ingredient for atomic and hydrogen bombs.

The government can apply for a court order halting the walkout as soon as the board makes its report.

Under a presidential order the board has until July 20 to complete its inquiry but White House counsel Bernard M. Shanley told reporters the report undoubtedly would be completed long before then.

There was unofficial speculation the government would seek an injunction by the end of this week.

Named to the board with Glennan, who now is president of Case Institute of Technology in Cleveland, were:

John L. Lloberg of Washington, D. C., Assistant Secretary of the Navy for Air from 1949 to 1953; Paul H. Sanders of Nashville, Tenn., professor of law at Vanderbilt University and a former regional attorney for the labor department.

'Painless' Dentist's Drill Is Demonstrated

NEW YORK (AP)—A new supersonic dental drill, claimed to be virtually painless and almost noiseless, may be available in dentists' offices within several years.

The device, shaped like a miniature riveting machine, was demonstrated yesterday at the Columbia-Presbyterian Medical Center.

The actual drilling is done by an abrasive liquid dripped to the edge of the drill, which vibrates at 29,000 times per second.

Commercial production of the new tool is at least a year away, and dental schools and clinics will get it first.

Greenford

The annual lawn festival sponsored by the Greenford Lutheran Church will be Saturday evening.

The program will include a country store and music by the school band.

The Pioneer Class of the Christian Church met recently. After a study of the Bible a wiener roast was held.

A tea will be held by women of the Christian Church at the regular missionary meeting Monday evening, July 12, on the church lawn. The program for the coming year will be planned as well as election of officers.

The Christian Women's Fellowship was organized a little over a year ago and besides interesting programs, bandages, clothing, $100 cash has been given for various mission projects.

Phillip V. Faust, Jr., minister of the Christian Church, will use as his sermon Sunday, "Are You a Cretin."

During the absence of Rev. Warren Zinn, who is attending a Baptist Junior High Camp at Lake Erie, the youth of the Locust Grove Baptist Church will be in charge of the morning worship Sunday.

County Raspberry Crop In Peak Production

LISBON — This is the week to buy black raspberries, now in peak production in Columbiana County, the county extension service advised today.

The raspberry crop is short this summer, although there is no good reason for the poorer production, Floyd Lower, county extension agent, said.

Berry growers in the Rogers area, the largest raspberry growing section of the county, expect Wednesday's rain to help the crop.

Earl Cope of the Carmel- Achor Road, who grows about 15 acres, expects his main crop to be finished by this weekend, although there will be a few next week.

Cope said the dr yweather reduced the size of the berries, cutting down on the yield.

Obituary

Dr. Ralph E. Brungard

COLUMBIANA — Dr. Ralph E. Brungard, 52, of 26 Union St., died at 9:55 Wednesday morning at his home following a six-weeks illness.

He was born Aug. 17, 1901 in Springfield Township, the son of Edward and Lucinda Berkey Brungard.

A graduate of Columbiana High School, he had lived in this area all his life.

Dr. Brungard graduated from the University of Pittsburgh's School of Dentistry in 1928 and practiced in Sharon, Pa. 1929-30. He came to Columbiana in 1930 and practiced here until 1948.

At that time he left dentistry and for the last five years was employed by the Franklin Furniture Co.

He was a member of the Presbyterian Church in Columbiana.

On Aug. 11, 1926 he married Margaret Shaeffer, who survives.

Other survivors include two daughters, Mrs. Fred Brown of Miami, Fla. and Caroline Ann Brungard at home; two grandchildren; and a sister, Mrs. Edith Herrmann of Columbiana.

Funeral service will be 2 p.m. Saturday at the Fry Funeral Home, the Rev. Harry Scheidemantle officiating. Burial will be in Columbiana Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home Friday evening.

New Domestic Problem

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Will American women now turn to smoking pipes or cigars?

There has been considerable hopeful tub-thumping that this will happen as a result of the recent discovery that cigarettes can't take away wrinkles or build either muscle or character.

The pipe manufacturers already are joyously rushing into production with a series of dainty-stemmed, colorful little chimneys designed to match milady's purse, belt and shoe.

The cigar boys are less optimistic about invading the feminine market on a mass basis But here and there you can hear them murmur wistfully "After all, ladies of fashion in some European countries have enjoyed cigars in public for generations. Why not here?"

Well, if women care for what one man says (and what women do?), they'll either stick sturdily to cigarettes or, if they insist on changing their tobacco habits, switch to chewing tobacco or snuff.

For years I was a voice in the wilderness, crying for women to take up cigars or pipes. I pointed out that cigars helped Amy Lowell write fine poetry; they made "Poker Alice" one of the best card gamblers in old Deadwood, S.D., palmy mining days.

It semed reasonable that since women wanted more and more to act like men, dress like men and talk like men, they ought to smoke cigars and pipes like men. This held out the possibility that in time they could even BE like men—reasonable, thoughtful, easy-going, peaceful, and less quick to detect and find fault with those small flyspecks that mar even the best of husbands.

This illusion has vanished. I have thought the whole thing through and decided that a nation of cigar-or-pipe-smoking women would be a national disaster—from the male viewpoint.

Take the simple matter of cost. No family budget today is large enough to support two serious cigar smokers. And if somebody has to scrimp on his stogies, it won't be mama. It'll be papa. He'll be wandering around the house cadging her stumps from the ashtrays.

The cost factor also will enter into pipe smoking. Do you think for a moment that a wife will be satisfied with Gen. Douglas MacArthur's famous corncob model? Nay, indeed. She'll need a separate pipe for every house dress or cocktail gown she buys. A pipe will become just another accessory to her wardrobe, and don't think the pipe she wears out in the evening won't have to be plated with silver or gold and studded with something more expensive than rhinestones.

There is still another problem. America doesn't produce enough matches or lighters to keep the ladies supplied if they switch to cigars or pipes.

Nor would the gallantry or muscle of American manhood be equal to the task of keping mama lit up. I figure some man has to scratch three matches for every cigarette a woman smokes today. Think how arm-weary men will become if they have to keep her pipe or cigar fuming. All it can result in is more divorces, with the husband whining:

"Judge, she smokes 4 cigars a night, and I have to light each cigar 40 times, and that's 160 matches, and I'm so worn out I can't do my work next day. Give me the kids, judge, and I'll be glad to pay her cigar alimony."

No, the sensible thing for women to do, if they must change at all, is to switch back to chewing tobacco. Some pioneer mothers used chawin' terbaccy—and when has the world created a finer breed?

When a wife is gnawing on a cud of good old Peachy Plug you can be sure of one thing—she'll be too happy and contented to burn out her old man's ear with small mean talk. It'll bring peace and quiet to the home.

Inspection Trip Of Farm Is Planned

Mahoning County Agricultural Agent J. C. Hedge announced that there will be a twilight meeting on "irrigation and water control" at the John Cullar Farm in Beaver Township Tuesday evening, July 13 starting at 7. The farm is at the corner of the Bassing & Lynn Roads.

Irrigation equipment will be in operation. The planting of vegetables at this time includes cucumbers, squash, tomatoes and peppers. Mr. Cullar practices rotation system on his farm. Besides the irrigation, there is tile drains, diversion terraces and strip cropping and open ditches. Mr. Cullar has been cooperating with the Extension Service and the Soil Conservation Service for several years in developing this farm.

Virgil Overholt, extension agricultural engineer of Ohio State University, will be the speaker at the meeting. Mr. Overholt will be in Mahoning County throughout the day and will be available to discuss irrigation layouts with farmers who are interested. Those who are interested should contact County Agent Hedge before that date.

Insurance Agents Hear Columbus Man

The Columbiana County Insurance Agents Association held their recent meeting at the Wick Hotel, Lisbon.

Guest speaker was John S. Bowers of Columbus, from the Safety Responsibility Division of the Bureau of Motor Vehicles, who explained the new safety responsible law. In the first year the Bureau handled 125,000 claims, 13,000 did not have insurance; 5,500 drivers licenses were suspended. 1,200 put up deposit and 1,000 miscellaneous and 4,000 satisfactory settlements or arrangements were made for payment, he said.

Accident or motor vehicle accident means any accident involving a motor vehicle which results in bodily injury or death of any person, or damage to the property of any person in excess of $100, Bowers pointed out.

The registrar may suspend the license of any person who fails to report an accident as provided in 450901-450978 of the Revised code until the report has been filed.

Other guests at the meeting were from East Liverpool, Columbiana, and the Leetonia police department.

East Goshen

Jack Falkenberg of Columbus spoke at the East Goshen Friends Church Sunday, and was a dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Riley.

Rev. and Mrs. John Morris of Mobile, Ala., were supper guests of Mrs. Mary Myers Monday.

A Tribute to — Our Salvation Army

If you think that the spirit of God pervades only handsome churches, consider the simple religious serices of those men and women who worship on street corners. Theirs is no faith of class, creed or color. All the world is their congregation — and what wonderful work they are doing! The derelicts, the homeless ,the heartsick and hungry. These are parishioners of The Salvation Army. No one is turned away. No one is beyond redemption. If you believe in man's humanity to man and want to exemplify it be generous with your change when a Lass or Laddie in blue passes the tambourine.

Tribe Beats Baltimore Orioles 6-1

Score 10th Victory In 11 Tilts Feller Hurls Final Game Today

CLEVELAND (AP)—In their last three ball games, the Cleveland Indians have been able to score in only two innings. But the runs in those two frames added up to an impressive 17 and beat Baltimore twice.

Last night the Tribe defeated the Orioles 6-1, getting all its runs in the second inning. In the opener of the three-game series Tuesday night, Cleveland scored 11 runs in the first inning and won 11-3. In the second game of a double header at Detroit Monday the Indians were shut out, 1-0.

Bullet Bob Turley's wildness and Mike Garcia's speed and control decided last night's game, Cleveland's 10th victory in 11 games. This afternoon Bob Feller (5-1) hurls for the home club against Lou Kretlow (2-4) in the last meeting of the two clubs until five weeks hence.

Early in the season Turley was rated one of the league's most promising hurlers, but he has run into control trouble. One of the Indians said afterward "looks like a guy who's lost his confidence."

In the six-run second inning, Turley walked the first two men, yielded Jim Hegan a single that drove home a run, walked the next two men, forcing home another, and then was rapped for a two-run double by Bob Avila.

Howard Fox came in at this point with none out and the Indians ahead 4-0. Two more runs came home on Larry Doby's single and Al Rosen's fly before the scoring ended.

Garcia had allowed only four singles, three of them by Cal Abrams, when the Orioles spoiled his bid for his fifth shutout in the eighth. Abrams once with the National League cellar-dwelling Pittsburgh Pirates, rapped his fourth single and went around on a single by Dick Kryhoski and Chuck Diering's long fly. That run ended a string of 23 scoreless innings Garcia had hurled against Baltimore.

A ruptured blood vessel in the middle finger of his pitching hand caused Garcia to leave Sunday's game with Chicago in the second inning. The finger "began to swell up some in the eighth, and I decided I better get out of there," Garcia said after the game. "I couldn't grip the ball too well and didn't throw too hard."

Ray Narleski went to the hill for Cleveland to put the Orioles down without a hit in the ninth.

JOHN "JACK" GREEN, a 91-year old fisherman, who is believed to be the oldest active follower of the sport in this county and one of the oldest in the state, was presented an honorary life membership in the Salem Hunt club, a club emblem and a fishing license, courtesy of the club, at his Power Point home last night. Above, Green (left) is shown receiving the emblem, membership and license from Salem Hunt Club secretary Don Cannon. In the background looking on are Bob Bradley, club trustee, County Game Protector R. L. Lide and Dave Kirby, vice-president of the Hunt Club.

91-Year-old Area Fisherman Can Still Land The Big Ones

By SANDY HANSELL

A spry youngster of 91, who says he was born in September, 1862, "and if you can figure me any younger, I'd appreciate it," is perhaps the most unusual fishermen in these parts, claim Salem Hunt Club officials and Columbiana County Game Protector R. L. Lide.

John "Jack" Green, who will be 92 years old Sept. 8, was given an honorary life membership in the Salem Hunt Club, a club emblem and a 1954 fishing license, courtesy of the local sportsmen, at his home in Power Point last night.

A fisherman since he was 15, Green said this year he no longer could afford the price of a license. Lide, discovering this, quickly notified the Salem Hunt Club, which took immediate action.

Lide says that no doubt he is the oldest active fisherman in the county and perhaps one of the oldest in the state.

GREEN HAS FISHED all over Westville Lake as one of his favorites. Now that he has a license, he plans to do a lot of fishing this summer, particularly with his grandson, Jim Marshall, Sebring police chief.

He started his activity with rod and line over 75 years ago in the East Liverpool - Wellsville area seeking Walleyes.

Like all fishermen, Mr. Green can spin many a yarn about experiences he has had while fishing and about "the ones that got away."

One of his favorite stories is about the day he made his biggest catch. It was at the East Palestine City Reservoir, he recalls, where he caught his legal limit of 20 crappies, "and they were all big ones, too," he declared, demonstrating with his hands. "I gave away dozens of little ones and just kept the big ones. They were bitin' as fast as my line could hit the water. . ."

ALTHOUGH HE was born in Jefferson City, Mo., he has spent most of his life 'in and out" of Ohio, Pennsylvania and West Virginia. He once owned a farm near Fredericksburg and ran a business in East Liverpool. He comments that he has been a taxpayer since he was 15 years old.

He moved to his present home, on Route 518 in Power Point which is just off Route 30 midway between Lisbon and East Liverpool, about 13 years ago. "I've never lived in as good a neighborhood as this," Mr. Green said.

Laughingly, Mr. Green, who is only slightly hard of hearing considering his age, recalls that he has been chewing tobacco since he was six years old.

It seems he had a water rash then and the doctor, following an old superstition of the time, told him to chew tobacco so he would spit out all the water. He topped chewing tobacco only six years ago. "It was too expensive," he explained.

HE LIVES alone with his wife, Helen. He had four children of his own and raised four orphans to make a total of eight.

He doesn't know how many grandchildren or great grandchildren he has. "A good number, tho'," he murmured sheepishly. He named at least five great great grandchildren, leaving a probability of a good deal more.

He still reads a lot, although he uses a big magnifying glass. He points out that he still has two good eyes and he wants to save them. His favorites are outdoor magazines.

I learned to read when my wife, a good scholar, had a school here in the house for the kids, Mr. Green attested.

Thus, an active, far-from-feeble 91-year "young" fisherman, John "Jack" Green, who is able to enjoy the thrill of landing a big one yet, will still be able to pursue his favorite hobby as usual this summer, thanks to the public-spirit of local sportsmen.

97 Start 2nd Round Of British Tourney

SOUTHPORT, England (AP)—Ninety-seven golfers from 14 counties go out today in the second round of the British Open Championship—and poor rounds mean "sudden death' for 47 of them.

After today's play, the field is cut to the 50 low scorers. They compete over the final 36-holes Friday. First prize money is 750 pounds ($2,100)

The 97, including the six Americans left from an original squad of nine, are chasing two Englishmen—43-year-old Sam King and 42-year-old Bill Spence.

King and Spence shot record-equaling 69s in the first round yesterday on the breezy 6,837-yard par-73 Birkdale course to tie for the lead with a one-stroke margin over their closest rival.

Behind them in closest contention is Norman Sutton, an Englishman, with 70, and a trio of 71s by Antonio Cerda of Argentina and Britain's George Howard and J. R. M. Jacobs.

The closest American challenger is Jim Turnesa of Briarcliff, N.Y., who played on the United States Ryder Cup team at Wentworth, England, last year, with a 72.

Jimmy Demaret of Kiamesha Lake, N.Y., and amateur Frank Stranahan of Toledo, Ohio, fired 73s.

Gene Sarazen of Germantown, N.Y., who tied Stranahan in the qualifying rounds, had a 75. Al Watrous of Birmingham, Mich., and Tony Penna of Cincinnati had 76s.

NAMED CAGE COACH

CHESAPEAKE, Ohio (AP)—Lindle Castle of Winchester, Ky., yesterday was named basketball coach at Chesapeake High School. Castle, a former star basketball player for Morehead State College, replaces Jim Venarri, who resigned.

Giardello Gets Verdict Over Billy Kilgore

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Joey Giardello nursed a sore left side of his face today but to ease his pain the Philadelphia middleweight had a nice fat check and a victory that kept him in line for a title fight.

The 23-year-old Giardello tuned up last night for an expected 160-pound title shot in October by lambasting Billy Kilgore of Miami. He won a unanimous 10-round verdict with the use of a sharp left hook and a potent overhand right.

Kilgore, who earned this bout with the nation's third-ranking middleweight through a series of upset wins, was out of his class. If it hadn't been for an unintentional butt that opened a severe cut about an inch under Giardello's left eye on the cheek, there wouldn't have been any contest.

Giardello was fighting two battles, protecting the badly damaged cheek and trying to pile up enough points to win the verdict. From the second round on, he had to be mindful of the blood flowing down his cheek. The ringside physician examined it before the third round started. But cut and all, Giardello proceeded to pound the 28-year-old Birmingham, Ala., native into submission.

Kilgore weighed 162½, Giardello, 158.

Giants Make It Five In Row Over Bums

By JOE REICHLER
AP Sports Writer

The New York Giants, rolling along at a phenomenal .861 pace since June 3, hold the biggest lead any Giant team has enjoyed past the midseason mark in 18 years.

Not since Sept. 25, 1936, when the Giants led the Chicago Cubs by seven games, has a Giant club led by more than the current 5½-game margin over the Brooklyn Dodgers.

The 1936 Giants went on to win the pennant by five games. Since then they have won two pennants—in 1937 and in 1951. Their biggest margin in 1937 was 4½ games. In 1951, they didn't grab exclusive possession of first place until after the first postseason playoff game with the Dodgers.

Last night the Giants not only captured their 31st victory in the last 37 games but made it five in a row over Brooklyn with a resounding 10-2 triumph. They walloped four home runs, scored four runs in each of the first and fifth innings and whipped Don Newcombe for the first time at Ebbets Field since the big Negro right-hander joined the Dodgers in 1949.

To rub it in, Jim Hearn, the Giants' right-hander, went the route only for the second time this season and registered his first Ebbets Field triumph since July 3, 1952.

Willie Mays, Monte Irvin, Wes Westrum and Alvin Dark smacked the homers. Gil Hodges got one for the Dodgers. It was No. 28 for Mays, tops in both leagues.

Cleveland's Indians drubbed the Baltimore Orioles 6-1 for their 10th victory in the last 11 games. All the Indian runs came in the second inning.

The New York Yankees trounced the Boston Red Sox 17-9, remaining 3½ games behind first-place Cleveland. Chicago's White Sox, struggling to stay within reach of the Indians, shut out Detroit 9-0 behind the four-hit pitching of Don Johnson.

Milwaukee's Braves nipped the Chicago Cubs 1-0 as Chet Nichols outhurled Howie Pollet in a southpaw duel. Danny O'Connell's seventh-inning single followed by Jim Pendleton's double accounted for the lone run.

Peanuts Lowrey's pinch single with the bases loaded and two out in the 11th gave the St. Louis Cardinals their second straight victory over the Cincinnati Redlegs, 5-4. Rain washed out the scheduled twi-night double-header between Pittsburgh and the Phillies in Philadelphia. Washington and the Philadelphia Athletics were not scheduled.

The Yankees enjoyed their most productive day of the season, pounding four Boston pitchers for 17 hits in a game that was halted in the eighth inning by rain. Yogi Berra drove in five runs with a triple and homer and Irv Noren whacked four hits in five times at bat.

The Indians combined three hits, a sacrifice fly and four walks by Bob Turley to score all their runs in the second inning as Mike Garcia registered his 11th triumph. Bobby Avila's two-run double was the key blow.

The White Sox smashed 16 hits, including a home run by Ron Jackson, the 6-foot-7 20-year-old bonus first baseman.

Fastest Mile Was Recorded 89 Years Ago

By GAYLE TALBOT

NEW YORK (AP) — Old North Dakota archives strongly indicate that the fastest mile ever run by a human was recorded 89 years ago this week, long bfeore either John Landy or Roger Bannister was born, and before Wes Santee learned to talk. We are indebted to Eugene Fitzgerald, sports editor of the Fargo (N.D.) Forum, for having made available this long-forgotten page of track history.

"At a celebration at Ft. Rice, Dakota Territory, about 25 miles south of Mandan, on July 4, 1865, the Frontier Scout of July 6 that year had a report on the holiday festivities," Fitzgerald writes.

"Four companies of U.S. volunteers, infantrymen who deserted from the Confederate army, were stationed at Ft. Rice, along with a company of the 6th Iowa Cavalry. Col. C. A. R. Dimon was the commanding officer.

"The first event on the holiday celebration following the review was a mile run, three times around the fort. There were six entries for a prize of $5.

"The event was won by Cpl. W. H. Green of Co. D of the Confederate deserters in the time of 3¾ minutes, the Frontier Scout reported. Pvt. W. M. Winfrey of Co. C was second in 4 minutes.

"E. G. Adams, the editor of the Frontier Scout, in which the report was made, also was a Confederate deserter.

"Of course, someone is going to say the timing wasn't accurate. But even allowing for the accuracy of the timing, you'll admit that 15 seconds (under 4 minutes) would be a big margin of error for 225 seconds. Even conceding that the timing might have been inaccurate, there wasn't much wrong with the engineering of those days, and 12 inches was a foot.

"(The fort) was rectangular, 519 feet on its north and south sides and 500 on the east and west. Three times around that enclosure would be 6,060 feet, or 780 feet more than the regulation mile which Bannister and Landy ran under 4 minutes .The best sprinters of our day would require more than 25 seconds to cover the 260 yards which Green and Winfrey ran after completing the mile.

"Possibly the $5 first prize (which automatically made the runners professionals) is the reason the accomplishment has never been given official recognition, because there was no shortage of spectators.

"The Frontier Scout reported that the wives of officers and soldiers and visiting ladies watched the celebration from the parapet of the fort. The Indians below, some only in breech cloth, wore grosteque costumes, leaning against the fort. Squaws bore their offspring pig-back. The Indians wore fringes, beads, feathers, buffalo robes and tassels and a conglomeration of everything that shines, hangs and flutters.'"

5. When was the first Army - Notre Dame football game played? The last? What is the won-lost record in the series?

ANSWERS

1. There have been six unassisted triple plays in the history of the major leagues. The last to do the trick was Johnny Neun, playing first base for the Detroit Tigers on May 31, 1927.
2. The three heavyweight boxing champions who earned more than two million dollars in the prize ring were Joe Louis, Jack Dempsey and Gene Tunney.
3. There are 11 players on a cricket team.
4. The major league record for most games lost by a pitcher in one season since 1900 is held by Vic Willis of the Boston Braves. He dropped 29 games in 1905.
5. The first Army - Notre Dame football game was played in 1913. The last was held in 1947. Notre Dame won 27, Army 7 and there were 4 ties.

Leaders Named In Little League

Hunter Hitting .520; Benny Jones Second

David Hunter of VFW and Benny Jones of Eljers pace the hitters in the Little Major League for the first half, figures released today by official scorer Mrs. James Jackson reveal.

Hunter has registered 13 hits in 25 trips to average a torrid .520. Jones is right behind with the same number of hits in one more appearance at the plate to stand at an even .500.

Bobby Lehwald of Mullins has the most hits, 16, and also has batted the most times, 34. His average is .471, good enough for fourth place in the standings.

Sekely's Ned Chappell with a .481 mark ranks third.

All batters hitting .300 or better in 15 or more times at bat are listed below.

Boys Invited By Club To Learn Marksmanship

Considerable interest was displayed by both boys and the adult members of the club in the first session of the National Rifle Association Hunters Safety Course, held Saturday afternoon at the Salem Hunting Club range, club officials said.

The second session of the course will be Friday at 6::30 p.m.

There were four absentees who will be given the opportunity to make up the lost work if they will be at the club by 5:15 Friday afternoon. B. L. Flick is chairman.

Odom New Manager Of Merchants Team

The Salem Merchants have named a permanent manager for the remainder of the baseball season.

He is Grady Odom, a well-known figure in district sports circles and the owner of Grady's market.

Grady Odom

Odom's most recent accomplishment sportswise, was managing and sponsoring the championship Class A basketball team during the past season. Odom at one time was a Canton McKinley High School athlete.

So far this year, Dave Kachner, Bill Odorizzi and Chester Brautigam have had brief terms at the helm of the Merchants. Brautigam, the team president, has been filling in for a few weeks until a permanent choice could be made.

The Merchants, 1953 regular season champions, are well on their way to another banner year, currently leading the league by 2½ games with a 15-2 mark.

City, County Games Postponed By Rain

All action in the City softball leagues, the County baseball league and the County Junior Legion tournament was postponed yesterday because of rain and wet grounds.

Two girls' league games at Kelley Field were washed away, but three city A and double-A tilts are carded tonight; the County league will swing back into action Sunday with a four-game card and the Salem Junior Legion team will again try to continue its quest for honors at East Liverpool this evening.

WINS SWIM EVENT

HONOLULU (AP)—Richard Cleveland of Hawaii and Ohio State University last night clipped one-tenth of a second off his own American record in winning the 50 meter freestyle event of an international swim meet. Cleveland was timed in 25.2 seconds, three-tenths fastr than second place Masanobu Koga of Japan.

The four-day meet, which opened last night, matches top Hawaiian and Japanese swimmers.

Jim Beard Will Hold Ball For Lou Groza

Salem High School Football Captain Jim Beard will hold the ball when Lou Groza kicks field goals between features at the Salem Drive-In Theater tonight and tomorrow night.

Groza is appearing as a part of the theater's all-sports show, which includes the movies "Crazy Legs," in which Groza appears, and "The Joe Louis Story."

GRANGE TEAMS TO PLAY

Sunday's first round playoff game between Butler Grange and Bayard Grange in the county Grange tournament is scheduled for Sunday at Minerva, instead of Saturday as previously announced.

18 4-H Teams Begin County Softball Play

Eighteen softball teams began play this week in Columbiana County's first 4-H Club ball league.

The league, which was organized last month, is divided into a West League and an East League with nine teams in each.

Ralph Yeager, in charge of 4-H work in Columbiana County, said playoffs to decide the county champions will be held in early September between the winning teams from east and west.

Each team is to locate its own ballfield in which to play and will furnish its officials.

Yeager said the county was divided in half so the club members would not have so far to travel.

Clubs entered in the league play are:

East: Fairfield Junior Farmers, Fairfield Junior Homemakers, Fairfield Boosters, Unity Wide-Awakes, Clarkson Teens, Fairmount Farmerettes, Fairmount Rustling Ramblers, both of Rogers, Calcutta Boosters and the Country Gentlemen of Wellsville RD.

West: Ever-Ready of East Rochester; Jolly Co-eds of Homeworth, Junior Farmers of Salem Township, Winona Jolly Bunch, Hanover Twp. Wide-Awakes, Lisbon Junior Livestock, Lucky Penny of Lisbon RD, Good Luck No. 1 of Lisbon and Gavertown Hustlers of near Gavers.

Change Made In Salem Basketball Schedule

Although this is not the season of the year to be thinking of basketball, one change has been announced in next season's Salem High School cage schedule.

The Salem Quakers have been forced to drop out of the Farrell Lions Club tournament Dec. 27 and 28, the Ohio Athletic Commission ruled recently.

No Ohio high school team is permitted, under state regulations, to play a game to make money for any outside group. "Since the Lions Club is sponsoring the Farrell Tournament, the state said we were not allowed to participate," Coach John Cabas explained.

New Kensington, Pa., has been secured to replace the locals.

ABC On How U. S. Can Attempt To Keep Red China Out Of UN

WASHINGTON (AP) — This is an ABC on how the United States can try to keep Red China out of the United Nations.

When the U.N. was created at war's end, Chian Kai-shek's Nationalists were the government of China. As such, they were given U.N. membership. At that time the Chinese Communists were a minority group, not a government.

Later they drove Chiang off the mainland to the island of Formosa. He set up shop there, claiming his was still the real government of all China. The Reds, occupying all the mainland, said they were the government.

The United States, refusing to recognize the Reds, has supported Chiang with arms and money. But 17 of the U.N.'s 60 member nations — including Britain, Russia, India, the Netherlands — have recognized Red China.

The U.N. has two main bodies: Security Council and General Assembly. All 60 U.N. members sit in the Assembly; 1 also sit in the council. Chian's Nationalists sit in both council and Assembly.

The council is in continuous session, the Assembly meets at intervals. It doesn't meet again until Sept. 21. The fight over Red China, when and if it comes in 1954, is almost certain to be in the Assembly, not in the council.

The council and the Assembly operate more or less independently of each other and have different voting rules. In both places, this year at least, the United States appears now to have enough friendly votes to keep Red China out.

But this could happen: the Assembly might oust the Nationalists and seat Red China while the Security Council blocked Red China and let the Nationalists keep their seat.

Take the Assembly first:

Say someone moves to seat Red China. The United States could ask the vote on this motion be postponed. The decision would be by a simple majority of the 60 Assembly members. The United States might have enough friendly votes to win even on a majority test.

But suppose it loses on this vote. That doesn't mean Red China walks in. If the majority voted against postponing a vote, the United States could invoke Article 18 of the U.N. Charter when the actual vote on seating Red China came up.

This says that on any "important" question like seating a new member, Assembly approval must be by a two-thirds vote. All the United States would need then would be one third of the votes, plus one, to keep Red China out. It could probably do that.

But Russia could argue that Article 18 does not apply because China is already a member and that the only issue was whether to seat the Communists instead of the Nationalists. If the Assembly agreed with this view, and held Article 18 did not apply, a simple majority would decide whether to admit Red China. The United States might run into trouble on that.

Now take the Security Council:

Five of its 11 members are permanent: the United States, Britain, France, China, Russia. The other six, elected from the Assembly, hold their seats on a rotating basis. At present the six are Brazil, Colombia, Turkey, Lebanon, Denmark and New Zealand.

The council votes on two kinds of questions: (a) procedural (or minor), like setting up a committee to study something and (b) substantive (very important), like telling both sides in a war to stop shooting and withdraw.

Any substantive question, like letting Red China into the Security Council, can be killed by any one of the five permanent members with a simple veto. The United States and Nationalist China, both on the council, would cast vetoes.

So Russia is never likely to agree that membership for Red China is a substantive question. Instead, if it brings the question up in the Security Council at all it is almost certain to try to make it a procedural matter.

The U.N. Charter provides for no veto on a procedural question, which can be approved if 7 of the 11 council members vote for it. But the Communists could hardly win that way now because of the council's makeup.

Since 7 of the 11 votes would be necessary to seat Red China, the United States could block that if it could round up five votes against. It seems to have those five votes now, but may not have that much strength next year after new temporary council members are chosen.

SOLON — Sam Reynolds, of Omaha, is the new senator from Nebraska. He will fill the seat vacated by the death of Sen. Hugh Butler. The 63-year-old Republican has long been active in state politics.

Mrs. Firestone, Tire Magnate's Widow, Dies

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—Mrs. Idabelle Firestone, 79, widow of Harvey S. Firestone Sr., founder of the Firestone Tire & Rubber Co., died yesterday at her home, "Harbel Manor."

Two of the songs she composed —"In My Garden" and "If I Could Tell You"—have been used for years in Firestone radio and television shows.

Born in Minnesota City., Minn., she was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George T. Smith and was raised at Jackson, Mich., where she met her husband.

Firestone, then a buggy salesman, obtained $45,000 for his share of a Chicago rubber firm and came to Akron in 1900 with a patent on a means for applying solid rubber tires to buggies and carriages.

From that he went on to the rubber company which grossed more than a billion dollars last year.

The old Firestone homestead is at Columbiana.

Mrs. Firestone, who was married Nov. 20, 1895, had studied music at Alma College at St. Thomas, Ont.

Her principal interests were music and her garden. One species of marigold was named for her.

In 1929, Mrs. Firestone donated $400,000 for the construction of the Idabelle Firestone Nurses Home at Akron's City Hospital.

Mrs. Firestone will be buried in the Firestone plot in Columbiana Cemetery Friday afternoon. The funeral party will leave Akron at 2 p.m., and a service will be held at the cemetery.

Also buried in the plot are her husband, Harvey; a daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Graham; a son, Russell; and a daughter-in-law, Mrs. Roger Firestone.

Would Rather Be Jailed Than Give Up Mink Coat

BOSTON (AP) — Mrs. Mildred Prevoir, a pretty 33-year-old brunette would rather serve a term in jail than give up her mink coat and jewels.

So she informed Municipal Court Judge Jennie L. Barron yesterday when the judge offered her this choice: "Give up your mink coat and jewels or spend six months in the common jail."

Mrs. Prevoir's attorney, however, appealed the sentence.

The woman had pleaded guilty of defrauding an insurance firm of $800 by filing a false lost report on a diamond studded wrist watch. Police said she pawned the watch and used the money to make a down payment on a mink coat.

Judge Barron offered to give Mrs. Prevoir a suspended sentence if she would "assign the coat and jewels as security for restitution."

Woman Indicted On 3 Counts Of Murder

FAYETTEVILLE, W. Va. (AP)—A 23-year-old Meadow Bridge mother was indicted here yesterday on three counts of murder and one of arson.

Mrs. Gloria June Vandall was accused of burning her 7-month-old illegitimate twin sons and her 4-year-old niece in a fire at her home in April, 1953. She gave herself up last April and confessed to starting the fire.

Police said she told them she wanted to get rid of her sons to marry her present husband. The niece was staying with Mrs. Vandall at the time.

Later the woman denied the story, saying she "just made it up" because she was angry with her husband.

Inside Labor

By Victor Riesel

When Harry S. Truman agreed to get on a stage and play a duet with Jimmy Petrollo, the ebullient little Musicians' Union leader suggested "The Rosary", which he had learned to play on his first cornet. But the ex-president sent back word that he did not know it well enough for a convention of 700 musicians. So Jimmy pulled out a stand-by, "Hail, Hail, The Gang's All Here."

Victor Riesel

Jimmy was practicing when Mr. Truman sent another message saying he couldn't come because the doctors had already forced him to cancel some 20 speaking dates. But Jimmy had a chartered plane readied to fly Truman from Kansas Cty to Milwaukee — and the former Chief Executive finally did come because he had promised to show the world that music doesn't always come out of a juke box.

They played, and the notes were heard 'round the world. "Harry" stayed pust a while. He told Jimmy and one or two others, among other things, that he felt the Indochinese crisis was the gravest we've faced in almost a decade.

OF COURSE, there was talk about Margaret Truman. The ex-President said that he and "the Mrs." wanted very much to go to her theatrical debut, but that he had followed a policy of not putting in an appearance which would seem to plug his daughter. Then he said he had seriously considered donning a black - beard disguise to go. Jimmy looked up and grinned, but the former president was not jesting. He was weary an wanted to see his daughter.

Truman flew home, fatigued, because the chartered plane had to run west to Omaha to by-pass a storm. All the way out and back, Truman worked on papers. It should be recorded that he made his last public appearance, before being bedded down last week, on a labor convention platform.

This was no accident. Mr. Truman came as close to being a labor president as is possible under our two party system. It was Mr. Truman's constant delivery to the trade unions which brought about a quiet revolution inside labor—the abandonment of its traditional neutrality in presidential campaigns and the merging of labor leaders with a good part of the Democrats' political machinery. It is not inconceivable now that a labor leader will some day have a second place on the party's national ticket.

TRUMAN IS GENUINELY fond of Petrillo and most of the other top labor chiefs. But the tie is stronger than hail - fellow well met. Truman sees labor as part of a winning political partnership. And he became ill wooing it for his party in the past few months.

He has felt this way it seems to me, ever since the 1944 Democratic convention, when the AFL and the Railroad Brotherhoods backed him for the vice - presidential nomination as "the second Missouri Compromise."

Before the end of 1945, less than eight months after he took office, Truman seized more than 12 petroleum refineries, machine works, coal mines, textile mills, rubber plants, railroad and truck lines (including the entire Chicago trucking industry) to prevent their being shut down by strikes. And, of course, each time the unions got most of what they had demanded.

Only once did he battle labor. That was the day he went up the Hill to ask that striking railroad workers be drafted into the Army.

I learned from those who were in his private office then that the one thing he feared inside labor, as well as elsewhere, was "bigness" combined with tough and powerful leadership.

HE TALKED frequently about John Lewis' power and that of the railroad unions' chiefs. When the railroad workers paralyzed the nation's lines, he got mad.

This fear of too much power in labor was almost a phobia at that time. Then he eased up. The turning point came late in 1946 when the conservative wing in the White House led by Secretary of the Treasury Snyder lost to a group of New Dealers, including FDR's most devoted adviser, Judge Sam Rosenman.

They had been battling over a presidential message. After that struggle, Truman's coalition with labor tightened.

He had the knack of talking to labor people in their own jargon and he soon became an honorary member of various unions. Not too long before he went to the hospital, Truman was given a gold membership card in the CIO men's clothing workers. He wrote the union president, Jack Potofsky a letter of thanks. The last sentence was: "I haven't sewed any buttons, yet!"

Truman could reach the union leaders — and they made a powerful combine.

13-DAY STRIKE ENDS

ELYRIA, Ohio (AP) — A 13-day walkout of 145 employes of the W. O. Larson Foundry Co. at nearby Grafton has ended. Members of the AFL International Molders and Foundry Workers local went back to work yesterday after striking in protest over disciplinary action taken by the company against four employees for unsatisfactory production. The company said it would continue a breach of contract damage suit brought against the union in which $1,500 damages for each day of the strike was asked.

NAMED 'MISS OHIO'

CLEVELAND (AP)—A pretty 19-year-old dental assistant has been named "Miss Ohio" in a beauty contest held Tuesday as a preliminary to the "Miss Universe" contest in California. Miss Barbara Randa of nearby Painesville will fly to Long Beach on the West Coast to compete in the "Miss Universe" finals July 24.

Home Dressed Meats Always

Have you tried our Beef Bacon? We have had some very good comments about our Beef Bacon. It is much leaner than the pork bacon, so after it is fried you have much more meat to eat. The flavor is superb, but being so lean it is more chewy than other bacon. Another thing in favor of Beef Bacon is the price is much lower. So try a pound this week, we think you will like it.

Icebox Cake For Quick Entertaining

If it has been some time since you've had friends in for coffee and cake, try this coconut cream icebox cake and you'll find yourself inviting them over right away. It's so simple to make, you'll be fresh and relaxed and ready to entertain when they arrive.

Make your own sponge cake base, or if you prefer, get an unfrosted one from your grocer. Split the layers horizontally and spread with the following filling and frosting.

Cut two 8-inch layers of sponge cake through center horizontally, making 4 layers. Spread the chilled mixture between layers and on top and sides. Chill several hours before serving.

For the filling use:

1 package coconut cream pudding and pie filling mix
2 cups milk
1 cup whipping cream

Combine pudding mix and milk in saucepan. Cook and stir over medium heat until mixture comes to a full boil. Remove from heat. Cool, stirring occasionally. Whip the cream and fold it into the cooled pudding. Chill until thick enough to spread. Makes 3¾ cups frosting, or enough to enerously cover tops and sides of two 9-inch layers.

An Expert's Recipe For Roasting Duck

The woman who knows most about cooking Long Island Duckling is Mabel Stenger from the Middle West. From April 1st to November 15th, these succulent birds are packed in ice and shipped directly from Long Island farms to New York City and to cities and towns in the nearby states.

Fod shipping all over the United States, they are frozen individually in modern plants and are available at quick-frozen food counters and meat dealers everywhere.

Here are Miss Stegner's rules for roasting duckling.

Push skin back around the neck and cut off the neck close to the body. Wash duck carefully inside and out in cold water, then dry thoroughly. Because the legs lie so close to the boy there is no need to truss a duck. It is not necessary to prick skin before roasting. The fat will not drip out any faster.

Roast duckling at a moderate temperature (325 degrees F.). Some people prefer to cook duckling at higher temperatures, but there seem to be several advantages to using the moderate roasting temperature accepted for other meats and poultry. At 325 degrees F. you will have less shrinkage, extra-juicy meat and no oven-splattering of the fat.

Duckling weighing from 5 to 7 pounds, dressed weight — or 3½ to 5 pounds ready-to-cook weight, will be moderately well done in 1½ to 2 hours when roaste at 325 degrees F. If you like a very well done duck, roast it for 2 to 2½ hours, depending on the original weight of the duck.

Roast duckling unstuffe, or filled with your favorite dressing. For a brown, crisp skin, pour off the fat, then place the roasted duckling under moderate broiler heat for 5 to 10 minutes before serving.

Or, for a beautiful brown glaze, brush the duckling with a mixture of 2 tablespoons honey and 1 teaspoon gravy maker half an hour before removing from the oven. Some people like a glaze of pured dried fruit or orange marmalade.

Old Tavern Recipe For Apple Pie

Harold Coppel of Wenatchee, Wash., sent us a crate of his famous Delicious apples. And our friends, Dick and Martha Treadway, who own the Publick House in Sturbridge, Mass., gave us some of their remarkable deep-dish apple pie. So let's combine ideas and use the Publick House recipe and the Washington Delicious apples.

Deep-Dish Apple Pie
(From the Publick House, a 1771 coaching tavern in Sturbridge)

Sliced apples (fresh or frozen)
1¼ cups granulated sugar
juice of ½ lemon
1 teaspoon cinnamon
½ teaspoon nutmeg
pinch salt
1 tablespoon butter

Fill deep-dish baking pan with apples generously. Quantity depends on size of pan. Add sugar and lemon juice. Sprinkle cinnamon, nutmeg, and salt, dot with butter. Cover with flaky pastry, making sure pastry is well over edge of pan.

Brush with melted butter and prick with fork. Bake approximately 1 hour in moderate oven (350 degrees F.)

Blueberry Pie 10-inch pie)
(From the Tavern, a restored inn on the common at Old Sturbridge Village)

One quart blueberries, fresh or frozen
1 cupgranulated sugar
juice of ½ lemon
½ teaspoon cinnamon
¾ cup crushed cornflakes

Line pie plate with flaky pastry. Fill with berries and sugar mixed. Sprinkle on lemon juice and cinnamon. Put cornflakes over the top as a thickening agent. Cover with top crust, prick with fork and bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) for 35 to 40 minutes.

Pizza Pie Mix Is Economical

There's a new pizza pie mix that brings joy to young pizza enthusiasts. Each package, including sauce, costs about 39 cents and makes two 9-inch pies.

Three young members of the Boston, Mass., Boys Clubs, Francis Hall, 13, John Power, 10, and Albert Heatley, 14, made up a batch for us from the prepared mix, adding a "funny face" note to their pies. Wonderful result! Want to try their recipe?

Funny Face Pizza

One package pizza pie mix
1 hard-cooked egg
2 slices American cheese
small can mushrooms, sliced

Prepare pizza pie dough as directed on package and shape dough in round tins. Cover dough with the pizza sauce. Make a funny face using slices of hard-cooked egg for eyes, Amercan cheese cut in the shape of nose and mouth. Arrange mushrooms around edge of pizza pie. Bake in hot oven (425 degrees F.) for 20 minutes.

Appian Way Pizza

One package pizza pie mix
1 6½-7-ounce can tuna fish
1 teaspoon each chives and parsley
1 teaspoon lemon juice
2 or 3 bacon strips, cooked

Mix pizza pie dough as directed on package. Drain and flake tuna and combine with grated onion, chives and parsley. Spread over pizza dough. Sprinkle lemon juice over fish combination. Top with the pizza sauce. Crumble bacon on sauce. Bake in hot oven (425 degrees F.) for 20 minutes.

Pizza Manhattan

One package pizza pie mix
1 cup canned clams
3 tablespoons chopped parsley
paprika

Chop clams and spread over pizza dough which has been prepared according to directions on package. Sprinkle generously with paprika and top with the pizza. Bake in a hot oven (425 degrees F.) for 20 minutes.

STEAMED EGGS

For each serving:
1 tablespoon top milk
1 egg
salt and pepper
butter or margarine

Put milk in casserole; carefully break in eggs. Sprinkle lightly with salt and pepper; dot with butter. Place casserole in Dutch oven with one inch of hot water. Cover Dutch oven; place over heat that keeps water just simmering until whites are set — 8 to 10 minutes. Serve at once.

HOME-STYLE ALMONDS

You can make delicious salted almonds at home. First blanch the almonds and dry on a towel. Place the blanched almonds in a shallow pan, adding a teaspoon of butter or margarine for each cup of the nutmeats. Toast in a slow oven for 25 to 30 minutes, stirring occasionally. Turn the almonds out on paper toweling, sprinkle lightly with salt at once, and allow to cool. Store in tightly covered container.

Lemon Pie With Corn Flake Crust

For a pie that's a little different and exceptionally good, use a corn flake crust with lemon cream filling.

You'll find the variation in the crust will add interest in preparation as well as in flavor.

Use:
1¼ cups sugar
6 tablespoons cornstarch
½ teaspoon salt
2 cups milk
3 egg yolks
½ cup lemon juice
1 teaspoon grated lemon peel
2 tablespoons margarine or butter
1 9-inch corn flake crust

Combine sugar, cornstarch and salt. Add milk gradually and cook over direct heat until thick and clear, about 6 minutes, stirring constantly. Add beaten egg yolks and cook over low heat 6 minutes longer, continuing to stir. Remove from heat; add lemon juice, grated peel and butter. Allow to cool. Pour into prepared 9-inch corn flake crust. Top with Meringue and bake.

Corn Flake Crust

1¼ cups finely crushed corn flakes
2 tablespoons sugar
1-3 cup melted butter or margarine
pinch of salt

Thoroughly mix corn flakes, sugar, melted margarine and salt. Press evenly and firmly on bottom and sides of 9-inch pie pan.

Merinque

3 egg whites
1 teaspoon lemon juice
6 tablespoons sugar

Beat egg whites and lemon juice until they hold in soft peaks. Add sugar gradually beating until whites are glossy and stand in firm peaks. Spread meringue on the filling and make swirls with the back of spoon, sealing to the edge of the crust making 6 or 8 swirls. Bake at 400 degrees F. for 7 to 10 minutes until meringue is golden brown. Cool. Serve.

BREADED VEAL CHOPS

4 center loin veal chops (each about ½-inch thick)
1 egg
2 tablespoons buttermilk
½ teaspoon salt
Pepper
2 to 3 tablespoons flour
½ cup fine dry bread crumbs
3 tablespoons butter or margarine

Roll end of each chop toegther pinwheel-fashion and skewer to meaty part of chop with a toothpic. Put egg in small shallow dish; beat with fork enough to combine yolk and white; blend in buttermilk, salt, and pepper to taste.

Put flour on one side of work board; put bread crumbs on other side. Dip a chop in flour, then in egg, and last in bread crumbs; with wide spatula, place on waxed paper.

Dip remaining chops the same way. Heat butter in 10-inch iron skillet; arrange chops in skillet and cook slowly until golden-brown on bottom side — About 10 minutes; turn and brown other side the same way.

Place cover on skillet (it should not fit tightly) and cook slowly about 15 minutes; turn chops once if necessary to cook evenly. Remove cover and cook slowly until very tender — about 10 minutes longer. Removed toothpicks. Serve at once. Makes 4 servings.

Barbecued Chicken To Serve Guests

Here are two recipes from our home files we think you'll enjoy. Both please our guests.

Barbecued Baked Chicken

Two 2½-pound broiling chickens
2 tablespoons butter
½ clove garlic, minced
¼ cup finely diced onion
1 teaspoon kitchen bouquet
2 tablespoons lemon juice
1 teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon sugar
1 teaspoon prepared mustard
⅛ teaspoon Tabasco sauce
½ cup tomato catsup
¼ cup cold water

Have meat dealer split chickens for broiling, removing backbones. Arrange halved chickens skin side up in shallow greased baking pan. Melt butter in saucepan and add garlic and onion.

Let cook about 2 minutes over moderate heat. Stir in kitchen bouquet. Add remaining ingredients and mix well. Brush sauce over chicken and bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) until chicken is tender, about 1 hour. After 30 minutes baste chicken with pan drippings.

Serve with buttered tiny onions and peas. Garnish with radish roses in cucumber rings.

Curry French Dressing

One-half teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon paprika
¼ teaspoon powdered dry mustard
½ teaspoon curry powder
⅛ teaspoon ground black pepper
⅛ teaspoon garlic powder
1 teaspoon grated onion
1 cup salad oil
1-3 cup cider vinegar
2 tablespoons sugar
1 small egg white

Combine first 8 ingredients; let stand 1 hour. Add remaining ingredients and beat with rotary or electric beater until thickened.

CHEESE PANCAKES WITH POACHED EGGS

2 cups pancake mix
2¼ cups milk
½ cup grated American cheese
poached eggs

Add milk to pancake mix all at once; stir lightly. (Somewhat lumpy batter makes light fluffy pancakes out of a ready-mix). Stir in grated cheese. Pour ¼ cup batter for each pancake onto a hot lightly greased griddle. Bake to a golden brown, turning only once. Top each stack of 3 pancakes with a poached egg. Makes 14 to 16 pancakes.

TOMATO-CELERY SOUP

1 can condensed tomato soup
1 can condensed cream of celery soup
Water
½ teaspoon sugar
½ teaspoon curry powder
1-16 teaspoon thyme seasoning powder or dry crushed thyme
Pepper

Empty soup into saucepan. Using soup can as measure, add 2 cans water. Stir in sugar, curry powder, thyme seasoning powder or dry crushed thyme to taste. Place over low heat, stiring occasionally, until very hot. Add pepper to taste. Makes 6 servings.

Dayton Layoffs Hike Unemployment Total

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The number of newly unemployed Ohioans took a sharp jump last week, but the total drawing unemployment benefits was the lowest in months —93,990.

These employment conditions were announced today by the state bureau of unemployment compensation in its weekly report.

Ohioans who lost their jobs last week and filed for benefits numbered 14,829. The previous week, the newly unemployed totaled 10,566. The week ended June 12 the total was 12,296 and for the week ended June 19 it was 11,394.

Most of the increase ir the newly unemployed came in the Dayton employment area which had 2,711 new claims for benefits last week and only 321 the week before.

But all the state's major employment areas—with one exception—showed a decrease in the number of workers unemployed one week or more. The exception was the Akron area which showed an increase of 16 among the long-unemployed, from 6,631 to 6,647.

First and one of the most important military posts in the west was Fort Laramie, eastern Wyoming, first permanent settlement of white men in the state and now a national monument.

Oil Demand Levels Off Here, Firms Seek Other Markets

NEW YORK (AP)—New markets for black gold are opening up in far-away places—while demand in the world's greatest oil-consuming nation is leveling off.

That's the situation confronting the multi-billion-dollar petroleum industry today: Too much oil in the United States, not enough to satisfy the fast-growing requirements of less prosperous populations elsewhere.

Many of the big U. S. oil companies are actively going after this foreign business. The results of their efforts can be seen in the glittering new refineries and tank farms that have sprung up in recent months all the way from the English Channel and the North Sea to the South Pacific.

Last year foreign countries outside the Soviet sphere stepped up their total consumption of oil products by a whooping seven per cent. This year foreign demand is exected to rise seven per cent more—to an all-time high of 4,750,000 barrels daily.

By contrast, U. S. demand is expected to show a gain of only two per cent.

The United States is still far and away the world's biggest oil user. Its 55 million autos, trucks and buses, its gigantic rail, aviation, shipping, chemical, manufacturing and power industries, burn up more oil and gasoline than all the other non - Communist countries combined

This year, U. S. consumption of oil products is expected to reach 7,900,000 barrels daily. That's another new record, but it's only a hair's breadth over domestic oil use in 1953. In most other postwar years the gain had been much greater.

Oil men say the present industry pattern—a slow, gradual growth in this country and a dynamic expansion overseas—will assume even sharper outlines. That's because the United States has become of age as an oil - consuming nation while many others are starting from scratch. In some underdeveloped areas the evolution has come about with breath - taking speed—almost overnight from donkey cart to helicopter.

One significant byproduct of the rise in foreign demand: Dollar-pinched countries which once almost exclusively dependent on foreign oil are trying to become self-sufficient.

And they're getting American companies to help. Drilling crews trained in the U. S. techniques are hard at work in Britain, Germany and France. Countries once bitterly hostile to foreign capital have rolled out the welcome mat for American dollars, American geologists and American engineers. The more oil they find inside their own borders, the less they'll have to buy abroad.

A case in point in Argentina. Two years ago, two big U. S. oil companies pulled out of Argentina, presumably because they felt the Peron government didn't want them thede. Now U. S. oil capital is flowing back. A big deal is in the works between the Argentine government and a strongly-financed American group which wants to develop the Neuguen field in southern Argentina.

Meantime, there seems to be little immediate hope of absorbing the huge flood of oil bubbling up from the world's realy big producing areas—Texas, Canada, Venezuela and the Middle East. But the hunt for new oil fields gones on.

"We're not thinking about today or tomorrow," one oil man said. "With birth rates soaring, living standards moving higher and scientific progress on the march, we're thinking in terms of world oil requirements in 1980."

Dairy Parity Price Support Increased

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Agriculture Committee has voted 8-7 for 85 per cent of parity price supports for dairy products between next Sept. 1 and Aug. 31, 1955.

These products have been supported at 75 per cent of parity for the last three months.

Secretary of Agriculture Benson lowered the supports from 90 per cent under existing law, in an effort to bring supply more in line with demand. He said the law required it.

The House voted to increase the price props to 80 per cent between Sept. 1 and next April 1. Efforts on the House floor to hike the increase above 80 per cent failed.

Parity is a price level said by law to be fair to farmers in relation to the cost of things they must buy.

BOY CAUSES BLAZE

CANTON, Ohio (AP)—Mrs. Herbert C. Moore told firemen yesterday her 2½-year-old son spilled lighter fluid in an upstars bedroom, and ignited it, causin ga blaze that destroyed two rooms and imperiled himself, five other children, and his mother. Mrs. Moore, who was treated for minor burns, said the boy earlier had started three other fires that were quickly stamped out. Damage was estimated at $2,000.

3 IN MEMORIAM

IN MEMORY of Mrs. Hazel Gillett who died July 8th, 1953.
Free of all our earthly cares
Forever she abides
In that land which bears
The name of Paradise.
Missed by us here, forming a vacancy just beyond sight,
Till we meet again on that morning
That's lit by eternal light.
Howard and family

IN MEMORY of John L. McQuiston, who passed away July 7, one year ago.
Gone is the face we loved so dear,
Silent is the voice we loved to hear;
Too far away for sight or speech,
But not too far for thought to reach.
Sweet to remember him who once was here,
And who, though absent, is just as dear.

Swiftest Jet Passes California Tests

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Air Force says a new daylight jet fighter — which reportedly has flown up to about 1,500 miles an hour — has passed flying tests at Edwards Air Force Base, Calif.

Yesterday's cryptic announcement disclosed that the Lockheed XF104, an "air superiority" fighter, had made its first flight last February.

The Air Force gave out little specific information. However, other reliable sources have said the ship weighs only about half as much as jets now in the air, but is twice as fast as the swiftest of them.

Questions, Answers

Q — What is the legend regarding the formation of the islands of Japan?

A — The story says that the four main islands of Japan were formed when the Goddess of the Sun let four dew drops fall from her scepter into the sea. The Japanese call their country Nippon, which means "home of the sun."

Q — Is the Tower of Babel standing?

A — No.

Keeps white houses white for years!
DU PONT HOUSE PAINT . . . CLEANS ITSELF!
STARTS WHITE . . . STAYS WHITE . . . keeps your home sparkling white long after ordinary paints have become dull and dirty. That's because Du Pont "40" Outside White House Paint is self-cleaning! Due to the unique blend of pigments and oils, this fine, extra-durable House Paint actually cleans itself under normal exposure to sun, rain and weather . . . provided, of course, that dense shade or excessive accumulations of dust and soot do not retard this "self-cleaning" process. Du Pont House Paint is also available in a wide range of modern colors.
$5.95 PER GAL.
DU PONT TWO-PURPOSE HOUSE PAINT
For combination wood-masonry houses. Stops staining on brick or stone located below painted areas. Goes on easily—tough and durable—protects for years.
DU PONT "DULUX" TRIM AND SHUTTER PAINT
Stays bright and glossy for years! Goes on easily . . . dries fast—has superb resistance to fading and mildew. 3 shades of green and 5 other handsome colors.
